Playing On The Edge

BEYOND THE ASSURANCE OF SAFETY, SANITY, & CONSENSUALITY

Every SM player has his limits. They change over time. They're different under different circumstances and with different partners. Beyond the broad grey area of "most people's" limits, there is a further area where few players go, an extent or extreme that is inapproachable for many people, the area of the fantasies they don't really expect to have fulfilled. For other players, though, this is the real playing field.

No matter what we say to each other, communication in words is imprecise, barely approximating to the reader or listener what the writer or speaker intends. If the subject is highly personal—say sex or death, danger or fear, transcendence or fulfillment—the communication gets murkier still. There is no way to say what it means to play on the edge. One man's edge is another man's daily life; one couple's far-flung fantasy is another's foreplay. When a man gets his kicks by pushing another man to the brink of coma by depriving him of breath or lacerating his skin in rapid-fire lashes of a whip or strokes of a knife, that is at the very edge for most people, but maybe not so far-out for the players involved.

Still, playing on the edge is something. The phrase means something. And no matter how little we understand each other, we can agree that, for some of us, there is an allure to the edge, the place where pleasure and danger mingle, where ecstasy toys with extinction, where fear and sex and the dreams of the human spirit collide or converge, where sparks of self burn brightly, perhaps winking out in the blinding presence of unknowable otherness.

Playing on the edge is playing with self-extinguishing and self-realization. It is playing with the realization of dreams and the destruction of fantasy. Playing on the edge is going one step further than you are sure you can come back from—one step or ten. And, while an ordinary flogging or electrotorture scene is within the province of SM players only, the edge is a different kind of psychic space. This place where the danger of losing life, limb, or sanity is real is approached by many people in many ways.

EXTRAORDINARY EXAMPLES FROM ORDINARY LIFE

"It makes me feel good," Jose said, "and if I die, I die." He might have been talking about SM, but he wasn't. He was being interviewed about his sport of choice, "surfing" on the tops of Rio Di Janeiro's intra-city trains. Dodging razor thin guy lines and bare high voltage wires, dodging train company security and local police, knowing that about 100 of his fellow "surfistas" die in Rio each month, Jose still climbs atop the trains every day and risks everything because it makes him feel good.

A young ski champion spends more time convalescing and nursing injuries than practicing or competing. Sportscaster Gary Radnich asks her, "Don't you ever think of quitting and living till you're 30?" She answers that, despite the major injuries and the "nickel and dime stuff" like broken ankles, she wouldn't consider not skiing because "it's a quality of life question."

Meantime, bungee jumpers say they never feel more alive than in the possibly fatal seconds of free fall as they plunge from a bridge. Sky divers and destruction derby drivers, rock climbers and other athletes in the "thrillmaniac" category all echo the sentiment. Life is more life-like, more real, more worthwhile when they present themselves with genuine risks. Not surprisingly, many of the same thrill seekers (and their milder kin who are attached to roller coasters and such) connect the high they get with sexual fulfillment.

Orgasm is the usual metaphor. It's like an orgasm that goes on forever... Like the greatest orgasm you ever had... and similar phrases pepper the thrill-seekers descriptions (even if the evening news is a bit shy about running such sound bites).

Orgasm. At "just 16," Jose may not know that's what's rumbling under his feet as he bobs and weaves to keep alive on top of a speeding train. It's what the bungee cord connects the jumper to, what the methods and instruments of the thrill provide: another way of being conscious, one as intense as orgasm, one describable in almost no other way than sexual terms. Even joggers, long-distance runners, weight lifters and aerobicizers know something of this, but their highs probably are to SM as the "surfista's" altered state is to scenes that have to be called playing on the edge.

The differences between Jose and SM players who go to the risky edge of the scene are simple: understanding and honesty. The leatherman knows he is playing with his very existence, challenging and changing its meaning. He admits this, even to himself. Jose may think his greatest challenges are avoiding the cops and staying alive to "surf" again.

GETTING PERSONAL

When my boy—already breathing thin, used air—feels my hands constricting his throat, we sail together past the mileposts of trust and consent, at least touching the brink of that grey area between ordinary life and actual death. Each of us takes from our play on the edge what he can, and it's usually too much connected to our separate individualities to be much talked about... but we know we've been at the edge, relying on each other and whatever resources we have. We know we've bared our souls completely to ourselves, somewhat to each other, and at least slightly to the Powers That Be in the universe. For a moment or an eternity, Being has become more important than anything we could call knowing or doing or living. At the edge, Being is all. Life blurs and intensifies. Thought dissolves into experienced truth. Wanting and desiring wink out. Liking and disliking are irrelevant. Being is just being, and to be is enough. Soul and mind are replenished and refreshed, and—however tired—body is usually left tingling and pleased as well.

We may not see God when we play to the very edge, but that is nothing more than a semantic distinction unworthy of discussion. It feels more as though, by pressing ourselves against the flexible edge of existence, we might make ourselves visible to God. More semantics of dubious value. The thing that matters is that we see ourselves in a light we could never have known without adventuring to the very heart of danger, and what we see is unforgettable, undeniable....

—JWB

On page 31 of this magazine, you will find a survey of the "edge games" people play compiled from talking to the players.

CAUTION

Every decision a person makes, including the decision to get out of bed in the morning, has some degree of risk associated with it. We strongly believe that each competent adult must set for themselves the level of risk he or she is willing to accept. Some avoid crossing streets in heavy traffic—others stunt-ride motorcycles without a helmet. However, to intelligently confront and accept risk, a person must understand the dangers.

While Drummer hopes to educate its readers on a wide variety of topics, its main purpose is to entertain! Works of fiction presented in this magazine are just that—fiction! They are not in any way intended to suggest or describe activities that anyone should—or often could—actually do. They are meant for entertainment only. In other than fictional pieces, we will emphasize safe sex with respect to contagious diseases, and safe and sane behavior with respect to all activities, and will try to point out all activities which deviate from recognized safe-sex and safe-and-sane play activities.

MALE CALL

BOYS OF DRUMMER

I was impressed with Drummer's Issue 146 and the coverage that was given to Clive Platman, currently entitled Mr. Drummer. I enjoyed reading his comments and experiences regarding his association with the contest specifically and his Leather life generally.

However, I was disappointed with this issue and other recent issues which have focused in general or in part on last September's contest. I am discouraged that the Editors appear to have ignored or elected not to cover and report the efforts of the Drummerboys who participated in the contest and whose contribution provided a significant degree of support and assistance. I feel that without their energy and labor, the contest would not have been as well managed or as entertainingly presented.

Many of the Drummerboys were selected by the respective regional winners and to my knowledge at least two Drummerboys who were chosen as a result of local contests designed specifically to select their representatives. Considering the energy and commitment that these Drummerboys expended to participate in the Mr. Drummer contest in San Francisco, I feel that they should be given greater acknowledgement compared with what they have received to date.

I feel that credibility of the Mr. Drummer Contest is dependent upon the enthusiasm the winners (national, regional, etc.) and participants who contribute to it, and in turn the support that the participants receive from the S/M and leather communities. As a representative of the leather community at large, these men are our ambassadors and have represented us well with a strong and viable track record for social activism and positive reinforcement of our lifestyles. In many cases I feel that Drummerboys have used their positions to enhance the well-being and credibility of our community, for which they should be duly recognized.

I am hopeful the editors will realize the important contributions made by the Drummerboys in last September's contest and in previous contests and will choose to acknowledge their contributions with photographs and copy in future issues of Drummer.

Yours sincerely,

A.K.

The editors do recognize the important contribution of the Drummerboys to the contest and surrounding events. And we recognize the contribution of "boys" to our leather communities and leather lifestyles, too. In Drummer 150 we are planning to cover the subject with an article by John Siracusa, Clive Platman's boy, and an accompanying photospread. All of which is just a beginning, of course.

FREE ONTARIO!

I am very impressed with your magazine. I especially like the issue of leatherman Brian Dawson. He is a real hunk! I hope in the future you will do a spread on cowboys and their boots. I am really turned on by cowboy boots.

I would like to subscribe to your magazine, but I want to know whether living in Ontario, Canada poses a problem. Ontario is so puritan in its outlook. Will I have any trouble receiving your publication? Are there any special considerations when you send material like yours into Canada? Please advise me. Thank you.

K.M./Ontario, Canada

The subscription -handling staff tells me that most Canadian subscribers get all issues of their magazines. Some don't... customs, I guess. Sorry, but in our increasingly repressed times there just aren't any guarantees.

ELSA KLENSCH LIVES

Congratulations on Issue 141 with photographs on the application of spandex gear in the leather scene. Is there any chance of more bondage photos (eg. those of Mark Chester, etc.) and some appropriate fiction to go along with them? The article on tights was also interesting, but again let's have it with an S/M flavor!

Wearing spandex tights under leather pants, or with a cod piece and chaps is a real turn on. In a master/slave scene it serves both to emphasize the master's dominance - bulging crotch; and the slave's submissiveness and total vulnerability of his clearly defined genitals in their tights. Different colors too can be used in scenes. (Eg. black for masters, white for bottoms.)

Keep up the good work and keep up with the times! Let's have more photos of bearded studs and shaved punks in spandex-tights, hoods etc.

REVOLTING DEVELOPMENT

In your last issue of Drummer (page 96) you suggest a black and white photo for reproduction in your Tough Customers section. I cannot find anyone to develop explicit (no sex, just very nude, maybe a little bondage stuff) black and white film. Do you provide development services or can you give me an address of someone who will?

Please let me know. I love to shoot Black and White but can't find a developer! I hope you can assist! My master and I will be very pleased to start shooting B&W again! Thanks.

LEATHER NOTEBOOK

By Larry Townsend

Dear Larry,

I often read your Leather Notebook in Drummer magazine. Your opinions frequently supplement my own experience. My current interest is branding. Having learned to endure, then enjoy the pain of fisting I think I am now ready to progress this additional step. Which leads to several questions: Where do I get a branding iron? Is it possible to have one made with my initials on it? How does one heat it enough to leave a good scar or welt? What sanitary precautions should be taken? Should the guy be tied up or chained down?

Frankly, I wouldn't mind being branded myself by the right hot dude. And he'd better tie me up! If you publish this letter, please tell all those hot men out there that I'm looking for their responses to my Drummer ad (MASTER, Venice, CA.) Thanks, and let's get the irons hot!

Michael, Venice CA

Dear Michael,

Because branding was a harsh and hated punishment in the Old World, most American jurisdictions have statutes against it. Remember that in making public solicitations for a partner. As to obtaining a customized branding iron, anyone who works with metal, like wrought iron, can make one for you. It's just a matter of finding a guy who's willing to do it. Regular cattle irons are often on sale in antique and specialty shops - even junk shops. Remember, though, that branding a human is very different from putting the iron to a cow. Your skin is much thinner. If you're serious about doing this, I hope you get a response from someone who has experience. There have to be many pitfalls. If you just tie a guy down and shove a hot iron against his skin you may very well cause a far greater injury than either of you bargained for. But it is an exciting idea, isn't it?

Dear Larry,

I've belonged to the Leather Fraternity since the days when they issued membership cards. I've enjoyed the free ads associated with the Fraternity and used to advertise for a "trim pain slave." My fetish is squeezing the hell out of the slave's waist and gut, gouging fingers under the rib cage, some hard torture on the cock and balls. I might hold and control the slave by his hair or other means of bondage. With the slave on his back, tied and blindfolded, I will lay with my face on his gut and get myself off. Needless to say, when I answer my letters this way the letters stop, especially when I add that I like to make love during the process. Do you think there are slaves around who would dig my scene? Have I just missed connecting with the right guy(s), or am I too far off base? Respectfully,

Mr. Jones, Coon Rapids MN

Dear Jonesy,

You also mention in a postscript that you are: 50, 265 pounds, 6' tall, and modestly endowed. In all honesty, I would suspect that your physical dimensions have more to do with the rejections than your behavior. It's a cruel world out there, more so the older and fatter you get. Most of the things you like to do are a bit out of the mainstream, but not so extreme that you shouldn't find someone willing to give you a try. Of course, I'm not sure exactly where Coon Rapids is. If a guy lives too far out in the toolies, he may simply be inaccessible. I might suggest a diet and a good work-out routine, followed by a few trips to the leatherbars in your nearest metropolis (Chicago?) on Friday/Saturday nights.

Dear Larry,

About your comment on St. Sebastian in Drummer 146. Sorry, but you've got it bassackwards. By order of Diocletian, Sebastian was executed by arrows, but he recovered, only later to be beaten to death with clubs and his body thrown into a sewer. You put the clubs before the arrows. It is the first of the two executions that captured artists' and the public's fancy. For verification of the arrows/clubs sequence, see the Oxford Dictionary of Saints, second edition (paperback). Leatherly,

Victor Terry, NYC

Dear Victor,

I've seen the story both ways. The account I rendered came from the pamphlet they sell to tourists at the Basilica of St. Sebastian on the (old) Appian Way, just outside the ancient walls of Rome. However, every other place where the story of the saint is told, they always serve it up with the proverbial "grain of salt", hinting at the possibility of the whole thing being a myth. At the Basilica, of course, they take it all very seriously. After all, their livelihood depends on it. Regardless, his behavior qualifies him equally well as patron saint of either the masochist or the fool.

Dear Larry,

I am new to the World of Leather/SM. I have been away from the gay scene (i.e., celibate) for about four years, because of dissatisfactions with behaviors, relationships, and sex in the gay community. It seems to me that more should be shared between two men than an orgasm. I'm not sure just what.

I see in the leatherman qualities I want to develop in myself and have found no way in our culture to do so. I see in the leather scene and its rituals a strong sense of community and a path to self-discovery. Leather seems to involve the whole man: physical, mental psychological and spiritual. Am I deluding myself as to what this is all about? Is it inappropriate to expect to learn discipline, perseverance, loving, and just plain masculine toughness at the feet of a master?

Marty, Boston MA

Dear Marty,

Like so many of life's rewards, the potential benefits of "living in leather" are not going to float into your eager hands without your putting forth a considerable effort to acquire them. You probably have a great deal to learn at the feet of a Master, if you can find one who is willing to put up with you.

If you would like to have Larry Townsend address a particular problem or issue, you can write him c/o Leather Notebook, Drummer, PO Box 11314, San Francisco, CA 94101-1314.

AND WHY WON'T MY BIG STIFF BABYMAKER GO DOWN?!? IF I EVER GET OUT OF THIS ALIVE, I'VE GOT TO ASK THE SHAMAN ABOUT THESE THINGS! WHEN THEY MAKE CAMP TONIGHT, I'LL BET THEY TIE ME DOWN AND ALL FIFTY OF THEM RAPE ME... PROBABLY ALL NIGHT LONG! I MEAN, IT'S KIND OF EXPECTED... I MEAN, THAT'S WHAT WE ALWAYS DO WITH PRISONERS... I MEAN...

ENDARY FREEDOM-FIGHTER STUMBLES, FALLS & CRIES OUT IN HIS PAIN! THE HEAVY FENCEPOST GOHR MUST DRAG (TO SLOW HIM DOWN SHOULD HE TRY TO ESCAPE) THUMPS & LURCHES AGAINST EVERY ROCK, YANKING HARD AT HIS TENDER, SWOLLEN COCKIES!

CACTUS NEEDLES STAB HIS BARE FEET & LEGS. HE IS FORCED TO STRADDLE... & DRAG HIS UNPROTECTED NUTS THROUGH... EVERY STAND OF THE VENOMOUS "BUFFALO HORN" THORN ALONG THE WAY! WEIGHTED RINGS TUG & TEAR AT HIS RAW & BLEEDING NIPPLES! HIS MASSIVE NECK IS CHAFED BY THE IRON COLLAR! WHIPS BITE HIS BACK WITHOUT REASON OR WARNING! ALL TOLD, GOHR'S IS NOT A VERY HAPPY SITUATION!

STAINLESS STEEL toy boy

by Will Thomas

illustrated by Stephen Stafford

When they finished with him, Chris' body looked like a pin-cushion. He didn't know that was just for starters.

The new Hardware & Supply out at the Mall is a leatherman's heaven.

It's bigger than a football field and has attractions beyond those of the mundane. Sam and I are regular customers, even though we've got little interest in the usual suburban home improvement schemes.

Our shopping obsession is toys, especially variations on familiar themes, and there's no better place to let a kinky imagination run wild. The high school athletes they hire as stock boys and checkers are pleasing distractions, and if we're short on inspiration, there's no end to the cruisable young weekend carpenters togged out in stained Levis and sweaty tank tops.

This Saturday, though, we weren't browsing or cruising. We headed straight for the canvas and tack department. Sam winked at a blackhaired stock boy, arousing just enough curiosity to draw him into our aisle. While Sam eyed the boy's basket, I steered the kid's attention to the canvas and leather-crafting needles, trying my best to remember our mission.

With no help from Sam, the boy and I picked out an impressive assortment of heavy piercing and lacing needles. I was surprised at the thickness and heft of the largest—twelve inches long and as broad as a heavy knitting needle. The curved sailmaker's needles looked especially wicked, but the ones with the bladed, triple-edged heads intrigued me the most. I collected a dozen of these, ranging in size from a modest four inches to a foot-long monster with blades half an inch wide.

Sam snickered when at last our young assistant asked the inevitable question and got the predictable reply—"Yeah, son, we've got a lot of heavy-duty sewing ahead of us." I could only bemoan the fact that he wouldn't be part of the project.

On our way back to the ranch, we stopped at a fabric shop and picked up a dozen packets of stainless steel dressmaker's needles, and two boxes of heavy quilting pins. These little suckers have fat metal heads and come in three-inch and five-inch lengths. We took some of each.

Sam decided we needed some thread, so I picked out two spools of heavy carpet thread, one black and one white. We already had some fine-gauge copper wire, and Sam was looking forward to putting that to a special use.

Our guest wasn't due until two in the afternoon, so there was time to smooth off the edges on the large triple-bladed piercing heads. I didn't want them to slice. They'd only be used to perforate the very delicate material I had in mind.

Chris arrived a few minutes late, sweaty and excited. His photos hadn't done him justice and I told him so. That made him smile but the grin flickered off as he took in our greasy chaps, naked tit-ringed chests, and metal-spiked arm-bands.

"Hey, guys, you know I'm new at this, right? I just wanta get a feel for what it's like. Nothing permanent, OK?"

I nodded and gave him my best "Trust Daddy" look.

Don't worry, kid. We promised you no permanent damage, leastwise nothing that'll amount to much, and I can guarantee you'll get the "feel" of your life.

"If you've got serious doubts, now's the time to back out. What's it gonna be?"

He eyed me quietly for a few seconds, then looked at Sam for reassurance. For once in his life, Sam managed a perfect deadpan and the kid got no help from him. I waited for him to make up his mind, already knowing what it would be. He had that eager, I'll-try-anything-once air about him.

"OK, dudes, I'm all yours, but just remember I've gotta report for work on Monday."

I nearly laughed out loud at his naive style. He'd soon find out who the "dude" was, and well before Monday morning. I told him to shuck his pants and boots and watched intently as they came off.

A nicely packed redhead, Chris had tanned arms and a freckled face but his thighs and legs hadn't seen much sun. Just as muscular as his pictures promised, though, and the tattoo of the snake was right where he said it was, coiled around his left upper thigh. The snake's head disappeared beneath the tight white Jockeys, angling inward toward the long bulge of his semi-hard sex.

I got a fistful of his shorts and pushed him into the tack room. The hard cleavage of his tight little butt made my cock jump.

Chris made a funny little sound with his lips when he saw the layout of the tack room. We've kept all the old bridles and buggy whips, arranging them on the walls for display, and we've added some very special gear that granddad would not have recognized. I'm particularly proud of the webbing of heavy logging chains stretched against one wall. Chris's hard white body would look great spread out on that!

Our plan, however, involved the new suspension harness and it was this to which we led our weekend toy. Sam had designed and executed it for brevity and maximum body exposure. We were both eager to see it in use.

Chris mounted the old milkstool willingly enough and stood patiently while Sam laced the narrow yoke and back straps snugly around his upper body. The fleece-lined crotch straps were drawn up wide around his hairless buns and buckled snugly to the suspension straps just below his armpits. Sam made sure that the kid's ball pouch hung freely while I buckled on the wrist and ankle cuffs.

I made a final adjustment to the yoke strap and was about to kick the milk stools from under Chris's feet when he thought he'd caught us in an oversight.

"Hey, haven't you forgotten something? What about my T-shirt and shorts?"

Sam and I grinned at each other. They always wait until we have 'em laced up tight before they ask that question.

"No, boy," I said. "We haven't forgotten the packaging. Just sit tight and you'll see how we take care of it."

I toed the stools out of the way, allowing Chris's body to sink into and swing freely from the harness. He bounced gently as his weight tensed the heavy springs holding the support chains. The thick old vertical posts supporting the centerbeam over his head framed him perfectly.

Working together, Sam and I completed the picture. We spread the boy's legs as wide apart as seemed comfortable for him, tying them to ring bolts in the verticals. We then secured his arms in the same fashion, leaving them slightly elevated above his shoulders. Each tie rope ended in a medium three-inch spring. These allow for a lot of movement as the spider boy twists in his web. And there was no doubt in my mind that this boy would do some twisting.

We stepped back to take in the view and I felt the adrenaline begin its rush. It was obvious we'd struck the brass ring with Chris. He was a looker. I felt a surge of excitement and pride. This kid was outstanding.

"You wanta gag him?" Sam asked, rubbing his crotch.

"Don't think so," I replied, "I like the sound of that low soprano voice. It's about as close to a choirboy's as we're ever likely to find. Let him sing."

Chris kept silent during this exchange, and he only watched as we set up the autofocus videocam and positioned the spot mikes on each post. But when Sam and I unsheathed the big Bowie knives we keep hidden in one of the tack drawers, his face lost some of its color. Then the first notes of what was to become a long and staccato one-piece symphony rang out sharp and clear.

"Hey, now. Whoa, dudes. We agreed on a temporary piercing. Those pig stickers are not part of my scene!"

Feeling dangerous, I walked up to his crotch, which was nicely piss-stained, and slapped his balls with the flat of my blade. He yelped and I slapped them again, harder.

"You call me 'dude' just one more time, prick-head, and I'll shorten your reach to the floorboards by two inches. You got that?"

He stared back at me, a new look sliding over his peach-fuzz face, and then nodded quietly. I liked the scared-excited innocence in his eyes. He was just beginning to suspect how wild his ride might get.

Chris's breathing was short and shallow as we teased his belly and tits with the big blade. Their carbon steel takes a very nice edge, and as we worked his torso, we nicked out small rips here and there, feeling up his hard, bulging pecs and the scoop-rounded abs through the steel.

We tattered up his front real nice, but left the genital pouch alone, except for some more teasing and slapping with the flat of the blades. Moving behind him, we sliced the thin white cotton covering his hard little moons into long parallel ribbons, toying with his crack as we ripped and sheared.

About five minutes into this tenderizing, we noticed a change in his movements. No longer tensed like a spring, our boy had begun to wiggle and twist. I checked in front and sure enough, that young dick was tenting out like a hard finger. The threat factor was turning him on.

We picked up the pace a little, slipping the big blades through bigger and bigger holes, rubbing the steel against tight, sweaty flesh. He was moaning now and my finger found his hot little hole, raising the volume considerably.

We finished the T-shirt and the rear of his briefs, shredding them into long, clinging strips. Then we moved to the main target.

Chris's dick was pushing out hard, stretching the cotton knit to its limits and pulsing in little two-second jerks. Where the head met the cloth, the cotton was already soaked with precum, clearly revealing the red-purple imprint of a very fat plum.

"I think he's found the rhythm," I said. "Shall we finish this skinning?"

Sam just grinned and slapped the kid's erection with the tip of his blade, getting a sharp jerk and a deep groan in response. I paired mine to his and together we traced the outline of Chris's prick from tip to base and back again, lightly slapping and teasing that beautifully hard young meat.

I was so turned on I could hear my ears ringing. I was starting to fantasize on what it would be like to rip off those briefs and really castrate this young horse. Would he believe it as the razor edge of my Bowie opened up that pouch and dropped his nuts into my hand?

Sam caught my eye and I knew he sensed my fever. It was definitely time to move on.

"OK, boy. You ready to show us your prize?"

My finger found his hole again and he bucked, thrusting forward, as he shrilled out his reply.

"Ohhhh, fuck yes! Cut it all off, man. Strip it bare and then please jerk me off! I'm ready to blast all over! Fuckin' A, am I hot to cum!"

We both laughed. Not ten minutes into the game and our "dude" was already primed to pop his load!

"Sorry, boy," I said. "We never uncork a bottle like yours 'til it's been well shook up. But I think it's time to finish stripping the label."

Sam nicked the point of his Bowie into the cotton just below Chris's balls, working crosswise from the left. I entered from the right, feeling the kid suck in his breath as I did so. Slicing slowly, we ventilated the bottom of the Jockey pouch so Chris's testicles could slip free, dropping out for inspection.

He shivered violently as the cold steel connected with his privates.

"Very, very nice," Sam observed. "Very prime meat."

More round than ovoid, the kid's balls hung loosely in a lightly-haired, pale white pouch. About the size of jumbo ripe olives, and very firm between the fingers. The skin was delicately veined and quite smooth.

Sam hefted the living nuts on the flat of his blade and I trapped them under mine, squeezing down with slow, firm pressure. Chris groaned and started twisting in the harness.

"Unnnhhh, owwwWWW! Hey, no, please guys! My nuts are real tender. Please don't hurt 'em!"

He yanked hard on the ropes and bellowed just like the new calf in the back lot when we pressed down even harder.

"Glad to hear they're ripe, kid. Don't you worry. We'll crack 'em real easy-like."

Turning north, we nicked into the rest of the pouch at the base of his dick, one blade on either side. Chris inhaled like a bellows, stifling a groan as we slowly opened the double-paneled fly, slicing upward the width of his cock. The tapered, five-inch depth of the blades made this as simple as pushing upward along his meat.

We eased outward as we reached the head of his dick. No point in doing a circumcision blind.

Chris's dick was now half visible, pinioned only by two inches of cotton at its base and its tip. Sam took the bottom, I took the top and with a crosswise slice, we freed the fucker.

The kid had said he was uncut, but again, he hadn't said the half of it. The skin on his shaft slicked itself tightly over a plum-rounded cockhead. There was a puckered residue squeezed over the tip despite the hard distension of his erection. He was truly beautiful—slightly curved, hard and flat on top, thickly tubed below and about eight inches from tip to base.

I pinched the excess skin between thumb and forefinger and pulled it out as far as it would stretch. Chris eyed me, still breathing like a sprinter.

"About an inch, wouldn't you say," I asked Sam.

"Yeah, at least," he replied. "It'd sure be nice to circumcise this sucker right here and now. Whaddya think?"

I had the very same itch. Couldn't stop that Bowie from pressing in on the skin, just past the tip of the glans, pricking and teasing the tightly stretched sheath. Chris blanched, but he kept his mouth shut. I knew what was going through his mind.

"Yeah, it'd be easy enough, but we did promise to leave his hide in one piece. This time, anyways. I've got a feeling this boy'll be back later for some real surgery. Let's get into the program."

We sheathed the Bowies and Chris expelled a long, slow breath. Then we ripped off the remnants of his underwear. Naked at last, he was precisely what we'd been looking for.

We'd advertised for a body-builder, uncut, under 25 and with good definition around the pecs and abs. Chris was 24 and the slabs of muscle plating his chest and belly stood out in posing-pump relief.

Even better than his definition was the smooth, thin texture of his skin—tightly molded over those hot young muscles but elastic enough to make a receptive mount for the designs we had in mind. Very little hair except around his genitals and on his thighs and legs. And that was an eye-catching blond-orange fuzz.

The tattoo on his left thigh was pure bonus work—a green-scaled rattlesnake coiled around the limb, rattle buzzing and fangs reaching inward toward the dangling prize below his crotch. He said he'd gotten it in San Diego before leaving the Navy, on a dare. Some dare!

The temptation was just too much for us. Sam placed his mouth over Chris's left tit and my teeth found the right one. Our fingers joined at the entrance to his hole and we each grabbed a ball.

"Let's eat him alive, Sammy!"

I love the taste of fresh young meat, all sweaty and salt-seasoned the way only healthy young men can be. Drives me a little crazy, actually. Makes me feel like a cannibal. Makes my imagination do flip-flops.

I nipped and sucked on our guest, bumping heads with Sam and dueling with him for possession. In less than a minute Chris was yammering for relief, but neither of us paid any attention.

When you're spread-eagled on your back and some top is eating out your pits or sucking on your toes or balls, the suction of that mouth and the nibbling of those teeth can be excruciatingly dementing. When the action is doubled and two sets of teeth track your body downward from the hollows of the neck to the pressure points in the groin, it's easy to scream yourself hoarse.

When we reached Chris's rattlesnake, the kid was dancing and squeaking. He twisted so hard on those ropes I started to worry about the stretcher springs.

Sam was tracing the outline of the snake with his tongue and teeth, teasing and stroking it, and I had both of those tough little boy-olives between my tongue and palate, squeezing down on their load of seed. I expected the kid to squirt his juice any minute, but he must have been too far gone for that.

By the time Sam reached Chris's toes, I was deep inside his little brown hole, rimming him like crazy. He'd finished his screaming and only sighed and moaned as we completed the rape of his body. His musky male taste plastered itself all over my mustache and eyebrows, and his skin glistened pink under the spotlights, newly tattooed with bite marks.

Sam and I exchanged a long, deep tongue kiss. Then we kissed Chris, boring deep and showing him what a top's appreciation can feel like. He was more than worth the special attention and effort, and we damn sure wanted him to know it.

My leather codpiece was a soggy mess. I popped it off and wiped some of the juice on Chris's thigh. He wasn't so far gone that he could ignore the pressure of my dick and when Sam followed my example, we quickly had him begging.

"You want some of this cock up that hole of yours, don't ya, kid," I coached, rubbing my index finger around the wet rim of his sphincter. He squirmed, trying to seat himself on my finger.

Please, sir. Yes-I-do-sir. And please jack me off, sir. My nuts are killing me."

I smiled at the honesty of his sluttiness and worked my tongue inside his ear. Sam joined his finger with mine and we slowly finger-fucked the kid, rubbing our hard cocks against his legs just inches away from his own dripping prick. He bucked and groaned and I could taste my need to sink myself into him, right to the roots of my teeth.

Minutes passed as we squirmed, oiling ourselves against him, and I felt the juices boiling hotter. I heard my own voice joining the kid's, mumbling something about an explosion. The two of us had him very close to the edge and my own control was like jello.

Sam grinned at me, knowing just how close I was to breaking form. I swore at him and eased out of the kid. It was too soon to give him what he wanted. Too soon to crescendo. This little minuet needed much more preparation.

I licked up some of the kid's musky sweat with my tongue and tweaked the tip of his rod.

"Maybe later, kid. If you sing real loud and dance for the camera, maybe we'll both fuck you silly. And maybe, just maybe, we'll open the cap on that little squeeze bottle down there."

Very gently, with just the tips of my fingers, I prodded his balls. He moaned and trembled. I knew we'd set him up for the main event. There was heavy pressure inside those nuts.

"Sam, will you crack us some beers?"

While Sam fetched the beer, I tow-eled some of the sweat off the kid's face. Then I checked the harness for fit and made sure he wasn't going numb around the crotch. His eyes were slightly glazed, but he was otherwise fine. The harness padding is thick and all that jumping around keeps the circulation primed.

I sipped on my beer and watched as Sam allowed the kid to wet his lips, guzzling a little of the ice-cold brew. I wondered how good a pisser he was, and how extemporaneous this scene could become. It had been quite some time since we'd had such excellent raw material hanging in our ropes.

"You're real good, kid," I told him. "You're doing just fine, but that was the warm-up. Now comes the interesting part.

"Sam is going to release your arm and offer you that Mason jar over there with the folded slips of paper inside. There are ten slips and each has a number on it. The numbers are in increments of ten, starting with twenty and ending with 110.

"You're going to reach into that jar and pull out a slip of paper at random. Then you're going to read the number written on it, out loud.

"Our bargain was to introduce you to what you say you've been fantasizing about ever since you got that skin-head tattoo of yours—needles and pins. You didn't set any limit on how many we can use, so you'll decide that by yourself right now, by lottery.

"You got any questions?"

Chris's lips opened and closed. There was real worry in his eyes. This was nothing he'd counted on. I could see him calculating the odds of picking the slip with the number 110. One hundred and ten piercings! No way, Jose.

"Sir," he said. "I didn't set a limit 'cause I assumed you were gonna just pierce my nipples. Maybe my ballsac a little, too. I don't think I can handle any more than ten. Please, sir, no more than ten. OK?"

I smiled at him and explained what he should have known without asking.

"Son, don't ever 'assume' anything. Assumptions are real dangerous things. They get a guy into hot water with no trouble at all. Or, more to the point, into a real sharp bind."

Sam and I chuckled at my attempt at entendre. Chris, however, wasn't smiling at all. He twisted and kicked at the ropes.

"Please, Sir. You promised not to hurt me really bad. I can't take that many needles. I'd bleed to death, sir!"

Sam let out a loud snort and crunched his empty beer can with contempt.

"Kid, you don't know shit about what you can take. And you sure as hell don't know shit about piercing. The only way you'll bleed to death is if I get so pissed that I decide to whack off that boner of yours so's we can pickle it for display. And you can be damn sure I won't do that before I find out how it looks puffed out in stainless steel."

I reached out and fondled the kid's balls, squeezing them gently in the palm of my hand. He bucked at the pain, moaning for me to stop.

"Kid, either you pick that number or we will. And if we pick it, we get two shots at the highest number. You got that? Two shots. Sam and I'll each draw a number and the higher number wins!

"Now, are you gonna draw or shall we?"

I squeezed again, just for encouragement, but I knew he wasn't stupid.

"Owwwstopppp. Please, sir. I'll draw the friggin' number, sir. Please stop hurtin' my balls. They ache real bad!"

I gave the kid's nuts a final slap and nodded to Sam.

Sam unsnapped the wrist cuff on Chris's right arm and I held out the Mason jar so he could reach inside. Chris eyed me pleadingly, but I shook the jar and reached for his nuts.

He groaned (I hadn't touched him yet) and then slowly reached into the jar, fingering one of the slips of paper. As if listening to some inner voice, he dropped that slip and picked up another. He hesitated a second, then withdrew the paper and opened it.

Chris looked stricken as he saw the number he'd picked.

"Read it, kid," Sam commanded.

"Sir, it's 100. But sir, that's too many. I can't handle that many. I can't. It ain't fair, sir. I'm just a beginner. It ain't fair!"

Sam's eyes sparkled as he grinned at me. We both stifled the urge to laugh. The kid's dismay at the thought of all those needles pricking his hide was the best show I've seen in years. I'm sure he thought we were joking.

I pretended to consider the matter, shaking the slips inside the jar. Then, sounding as reasonable as I could, I gave the kid a little more rope, just to see what he'd do with it.

"You're right, kid. That is a lot of steel for your first time. I'll tell you what we'll do. We'll give you a second chance--better than even odds--to pull a lower number. I'll hold the slip you pulled and you can try for a lower number. If you pull a lower number, that's the limit we'll hold to. If you pull a higher number, we'll add that number to the number you just drew. Now, that's fair enough, ain't it?"

Chris shook himself, sweat popping out on his forehead, dripping down his cheeks. His tongue worked inside his mouth and his eyes flicked from Sam to me to the jar and back again. I held out the slip of paper with the number he'd just drawn so he could see it clearly, and imagine what it meant. His cock had gone limp and drooped like an overcooked noodle.

"We're waiting, kid. What's it gonna be. Stand or draw?"

Chris licked his lips, eyeing the Mason jar. Then something changed in his eyes and he looked right at me, almost defiantly.

"You guys are real bastards, aren't you. Screw it, I'll draw again. Gimme the fucking jar!"

I held out the jar with the nine remaining slips. Chris took a heavy breath and reached inside. He had an eight-to-one shot of picking a lower number (or so he must have thought). Pretty good odds for any gambler, even a 24-year-old redheaded neophyte from Modesto.

"Read it out loud, kid."

Chris, however, was unable to speak. He merely stared at the number he'd drawn, disbelief on his face. Sam took the paper from his motionless hand and read it for him.

"It says '110', kid. That means your total is 210. Shitty luck for you, but a helluva lotta interesting work for Smitty and me."

Chris remained silent. He looked like he had trouble understanding what had happened. I knew that he didn't—not really. But I also knew his imagination would begin building a monster out of the number now floating in his mind.

To help that process along a little, I picked up the biggest piercer and pressed it gently against his left nipple.

"This is smooth stainless steel, boy. One of the peerless contributions of modern hardware to the art of decoration. Very few of us ever get to feel its special touch like you're gonna do. Here, and here, and even down here."

I rolled back the white skin of his dick and pinched the thin membrane connecting his dickhead to the shaft. Lightly, I pressed the point of the needle against the trapped skin, letting him savor the feeling.

"Yeah, right through here, boy. One of the fattest of these pricklers is reserved for the base of your tent flap."

Chris wiggled and squirmed, sweat popping out all over his smooth, hard chest. He opened his mouth as if to say something, but the words wouldn't shake loose of his fear. I sensed another struggle as well, one pitting his natural gutsiness against the fear of appearing wimpish. He had, after all, arrived on his own steam. He owned a cockiness above and beyond that big schlong between his legs and it wouldn't do to seem the coward.

"That's good, kid. You can learn fast if you put your mind to it. You're the tack room toy boy for this weekend, and your only job is to wiggle and scream and look sexy as hell in our stainless steel."

Sam and I moved in close. We bracketed Chris's body, rubbing our dicks against him and reassuring him with the sweaty heat of our bodies. I nibbled on his ear and fingered his wet little hole. Slowly, he began to ease out of his fear. His body could respond, even if he wouldn't.

"Don't worry about it, kid. Nothing you can do now except enjoy and perform. You're a good performer. I can tell that by the way you twist and wiggle. We know what we're doing. You can take it as we lay it in. I know you can. You wanta smoke a little grass before we start.?"

He bobbed his head and I moved my finger all the way inside his hot, tight chute. His young muscle grabbed me like a fist, sucking down hard around the knuckle. Hell, I thought, if Sam weren't here I'd fuck this kid right now and screw the program! The temperature inside that hole was crispy-critter hot.

Sam lit up a fat joint and then fed the kid some smoke. Chris took it eagerly, sucking it deep inside his lungs. As he toked, I kept my finger working inside his hole, slipping from side to side over his hard little prostate bump. Before the joint was half gone, his cock was fat and straight and jumping up and down in its odd little rhythm of joy.

"I think he's ready, Smitty."

"Yeah," I agreed. "I damn sure know I am. Let's get started before I cream all over you."

Sam wheeled out the prep table on which I'd arranged the needles we'd bought, plus those we had in supply. There were two forceps, some astringent, a specially prepared squeegee bottle of high density saline, a big bottle of alcohol, a box of large cotton swabs, and the spools of heavy thread. All the needles and pins were fresh, but we'd sterilized them just to be safe, using a big pressure cooker as an autoclave. They lay soaking in a shallow tray of alcohol, a broad layer of pointed steel.

The needles were intimidating and the thread was an unexplained threat, unmentioned in our preliminary contacts. Chris could only guess at its purpose, and I knew his guess would be the obvious and most painful one.

Sam positioned the table directly in front of the kid, so he could see everything we did.

"You wanta do the abs first, or the pecs?" Sam asked.

I studied the kid's body, thinking ahead and toying with various possibilities. It offered a lot of potential. And there was the special challenge of that tattoo.

"I think we should use the long pins on his pecs, so let's lace up those abs first. They sure stand out, don't they."

Chris had obviously spent a lot of gym time defining the tightly grouped muscles bulking his chest. They corded and bunched themselves, moving under my inspecting fingers, slippery with sweat. The development was full, symmetrical and impressive, raising a ridged expanse of dimpled muscle from just above his pubic hair to just below his deeply indented breastbone. The corded protrusions over his belly created a natural outline for the stitchery we had in mind.

Despite his fear of the needles, Chris liked being touched. He didn't hang quietly. He moved sensuously, eagerly under my hands. I think he was as curious as we were to find out what would happen next.

We started just below the kid's massive, out-bulging pecs. I first swabbed the site with alcohol and then Sam moved in with the forceps, raising two sections of skin just where the muscle disappeared into the chest wall, below the outlipping pec. I positioned a needle, spacing it vertically along the outer perimeter of the bulging muscle, then eased it in. I mounted it twice so that two flaps of skin snugged it tight against his body.

Chris seemed not to feel that first needle as it slowly pushed in just below the jaws of the forceps. He gave no reaction at all, but just watched us wide-eyed, his jaws clamped tightly shut, his chest heaving. The second needle, implanted on the left side of his chest, drew a sharp yelp, with a frantic intake of breath. The third, just below and slightly outside the first, produced a real scream.

"OwwwwwWWW! That really hurts! Shit, that smarts! Hey, guys, I'm gonna hafta beg off. This ain't at all what I expected. This shit really hurts!"

Sam ignored the outburst and crimped two more mounting points between the jaws of the forceps. As I slowly worked in the fourth needle, I told the kid what would happen if he continued to mouth off.

"We can do this one of two ways, kid. I can heat these needles with a microtorch before I insert them, or they can go in nice and cool like this..."

He yelped and thrashed, yanking on the ropes as I seated the slender intruder just below the second mount, beneath his left pec.

"I don't care if you scream. In fact, I'll be disappointed if you don't. But I don't want any more lip about what you did or didn't expect. If I get it, we'll use the hot insertion method. You got that, kid?"

When I didn't get an answer, I nodded to Sam, who moved over to the workbench to find the little butane microtorch we use for soldering. After a few seconds of rummaging around, he ambled back with the torch in his hand and an eager glint in his eye.

"I can see you're a stubborn brat, so we'll find out real quick which way this trail is gonna turn."

Sam swabbed the fifth mount site and elevated two sections of skin. Thumbing on the torch, I ignited the tiny flame and passed the next needle through the glowing, hissing jet, using a pair of needle-nose pliers to protect my fingers from the heat.

Chris seemed mesmerized, but as the hot steel seated itself through the skin of his belly, he let out a screech that must have startled every critter for a mile around, including the new calf in the back lot. Every muscle in his body corded and strained as he sought to wrench himself free of the ropes.

I had barely enough time to seat the needle under his skin before his body twisted it free of my grip. He shrieked and fought the ropes like a terrified stallion. The power of his body rippling in frenzy was sheer beauty. I was damn glad we'd have a tape of it, with every earsplitting note preserved.

Gaping at this unexpected display, Sam groped himself and then moved in to fondle the kid's limp dick and slapping balls.

"Yeah, boy. Dance for me. Dance in those ropes and flop this big dick around for the camera. Get it nice and sweaty, kid. Get it hard again."

The heat, of course, quickly dissipated, but it took several minutes for Chris to finish his wild contortions, yelping and braying at the pain. I noticed moistness filming his eyes as he slowly regained his composure. I was sure he'd never felt pain quite like that before. A hot needle is a very memorable experience.

"Well, what's it gonna be, kid? You gonna do as we tell you or shall I heat up the next needle?"

The moisture squeezed itself together and then trickled down his cheeks as he fixed on me, pleadingly.

"Sir, I'm sorry, sir. It hurts like sin, but I'll do like you say. Please, sir. Just don't burn me no more."

I doubted he'd be able to keep his word, but I tongued his left nipple anyway and set the torch aside. When a puppy does what you tell it to do, a little positive reinforcement works wonders.

"We'll see, kid. We'll see."

Sam and I took our time finishing the needle mounts over his belly. The kid's dance act was excellent, if a bit spastic, as we moved slowly down each side of his hairless torso. We spaced the needles as close together as possible, staggering the mounts so that we ended up with two parallel lines on each side.

The bleeding was minor. We were careful to avoid any obvious veins, and the short sewing needles we used weren't thick enough to do much damage anyway.

Chris, however, seemed unaware of the care we were taking to preserve his hide. As the line of insertions grew longer, his protests grew shriller. His wild gyrations pulled the needles out of my fingers almost instantly, forcing me to speed up the entries.

"Just a few more to go, kid, then you'll be ready for some real fancy lacework. We'll even take some pictures for your scrapbook."

We watched his crotch as we worked downward but his cock stayed limp. The sequence of pain wasn't right for arousal, or maybe something else was needed to trigger it. I had a suspicion I knew what that was, but we had more territory to cover before I could test my theory.

Chris's pubic hair was coarse, reddish-orange and tightly bunched above his cock. I inserted the last two mounts less than an inch above it.

"I think we better shave this sucker. Whaddya think, Sam?"

Sam tugged on the kid's wiry thatch and fluffed the fine blond down covering his thighs.

"Yeah, we better. I wanta add this to our collection anyway. I like the color."

"Wet or dry?"

"I think we better dry prep him. He jumps around too much for the straight edge. I'd probably end up slicing these off."

I cupped Chris's balls in my hand while the two of us stood belly to belly, contemplating the prospect of surgery. He looked back at me with an edge of uncertainty, probably wondering if I was really wild enough to do such a thing. From the evidence so far, he couldn't be sure I wasn't.

Sam handed me one of the disposable prep razors we keep in our medical supply and I started on the kid's meaty thighs, working down from his crotch. I collected the trimmings in a small bowl, amassing a handful of fine fuzz by the time I'd stripped him as far as his knees.

The growth around his cock took only a few seconds to remove, with Chris straining forward to catch every bit of the action. Still no enlargement in that long, limp hotdog, which was puzzling. Most guys get hard when you shave their crotch.

His balls were a different story. Being so loose, I had to trap them in my fist and scrape slowly over the surface of the bag to be sure to get all the fine hairs. Chris naturally found this uncomfortable, groaning from time to time as the pressure shifted from ball to ball.

In about twenty minutes I had him smooth from the belly button on down, and Sam had a neat little pile of reddish-blond fuzz to display along with the other shearings we've collected.

I sucked on the kid's balls just to be sure I'd gotten all the hair, and to hear him bellow out in that young soprano voice of his. Then I nipped the tail of his rattlesnake for good measure. He appreciated my teeth no more than the needles.

"That's it, Sam. He's ready for the thread. You're better at lacing anyhow."

Sam snipped off two long lengths of thread, one from each spool, and knotted the ends together. Moving close to Chris's chest, he slipped the knotted end under the uppermost needle mount on his left and then drew one of the halves (the black thread) all the way through and under. The loose end of the black thread was slipped under the right mount and the knot was centered in the kid's chest.

The weed Chris had toked on hadn't generated much initial effect, but his reactions could have been masked by all that youthful adrenaline. As Sam began lacing up his chest and belly, his demeanor changed. The kid's moans grew softer, his eyes darker. His fight wasn't as sharp as before. His twisting and flexing was somehow more languorous, less frightened. And the best evidence of all was a slight fattening of his dick. I kept my eyes on that hose as Sam applied his thread.

Sam's lacing is a work of art. He likes to mix the thread colors so the finished lacework has contrast. The idea is to replicate the look of the old-fashioned corsets women used to tie themselves into. Sam's corset, though, puts a strain on the attention like nothing no female ever wore.

As he knotted the last cross-lace, I slipped in behind the kid and again found his hole with my finger. I knew it was time to test my theory, and I pointed to the antique full-length mirror leaning against the wall. Sam caught my drift and moved the mirror over in front of the kid, so's he could see his front and all of Sam's handiwork.

Chris's body tensed, then relaxed. I could see his face clearly. A sort of hazy amazement spread over his features and his eyes got real wide. His fingers and toes wriggled, flexing, and then his dick filled out all at once, just as though somebody had opened a valve inside.

I rubbed his prostate and quickly had his cock doing bounce patterns again. He was staring at himself intently, taking in the spectacle of his trussed-up belly and chest, feeling the scratchy pain of the needles pulling against his hide.

We had him. No two ways about it! This kid was a narcissist, a poseur.

The kid burbled and sighed and never went soft again as he watched us add the remaining touches to his portrait.

Yeah, he yelled pretty loud as we mounted the five-inch pins around the perimeter of those fat pecs. And when I showed him the 12-inch sailmaker and teased his asshole with it, he slobbered like a baby. At that point, he no longer knew a tease from a genuine threat.

The pins went in from the underside of that flaring pectoral crest, right up to the heads, and we spaced them as close together as possible. Their weight dropped them out and away from his chest, forming a wicked-looking fringe. It waved and swayed with every twitch of his body.

The curved sailmakers went through his nipples and drew some shrieks I knew we'd be getting hard over for years, on the replay. They're about 10-gauge, as you measure wire, and we didn't lube 'em with any K-Y before we pushed them through his tough little nubbins. Hanging down like fanged half-moons, they really dressed up that rock-solid chest.

The tattooed snake was a natural for decoration. I used some short dress-maker's needles to outline the fangs, the rattles and the diamond-back pattern. Sam then connected the fangs to the kid's pierced tits with some heavy black thread, just tight enough so's he'd feel the connection every time he jerked too hard in the ropes. His dick dripped precum like a whore's overfilled cunt as he watched those pricklers slip in.

His cock and balls were for last, as you'd expect.

We'd teased him constantly with the remaining straight sailmakers, prickling his fat sausage with the points and occasionally slipping the blunt ends partway down his cockslit. He really jumped and squirmed when we played him with those monsters. The kid promised us things you wouldn't believe if we'd only lay off that dick.

Sam found some surgical tape and a spool of bare copper wire and took a good fifteen minutes to carefully wrap the kid's bag, taping and stretching his balls while he yelped and kicked. We didn't want to castrate the kid (leastwise, not right away), so the tape prevented any cutting by the wire where it squeezed against his balls.

Sam layered the wire neatly around the bag so as to leave several gaps of bare skin between the kid's balls and the root of his dick. Just above the balls, he left one loose lead. Then he passed several loops of a separate piece of wire around the base of the dick itself, leaving a second knotted lead.

Satisfied, he slapped the kid's balls with his fist and stepped back. Chris bucked and bellowed, but that dick of his stayed perfectly hard. It jutted straight out over his stretched balls, flexing and squeezing against air.

"OK, kid. Here's where you decide if you really like needlepoint. Here's where we dress up the family jewels. You ready for some pain, boy?"

I got no answer, but I didn't really expect one. Chris never took his eyes off the naked image in that old oval mirror.

We had four packets of three-inch pins, saved special for Chris's final treat. I used three of them on his balls and gave the fourth to Sam for the skin of that fat cock.

Like a pissed-off porcupine, we stuck him so he ruffed out proud and pointy all over that young rammer and those trussed up balls. Every jerk and bounce set those pins to wiggling. I gotta tell you, that was one steamy sight!

As the last pricker was mounted through the bottom skin of his balls to hang by its head, Chris started pumping like a dog in heat, flexing from the pelvis down. I looked up to see him drooling, his mouth open and tongue working, his cock stabbing out at the mirror, thrusting and jabbing with its tassels of steel. No doubt about what was coming next!

"Sam, grab the Nikon. I wanta catch this on film."

Sam was ready just as the kid's body accelerated, dry-fucking the air, then contorting as his dickhead turned purple and bloated. A blast of white jetted out and up and thunked against the reflective eye of the mirror. Then another big splat, right behind it and almost as

The saline was misted over the needles and pins, salting all of Chris's piercings to keep him wide awake and alert.

Then three of the long sailmakers were slowly worked through the skin of his ball bag as he watched, shrilling and screaming from the pain. Sam mounted them horizontally along the back of the bag and then to the lowest shaft he clipped a snap ring.

Chris cursed with four-letter words as Sam hung a ten-pound sinker from the snap, loading his balls with a new, insistent pain, but his shrieks were less intelligible when Sam hooked up the copper leads to our pulse generator and turned on the juice.

"Attaboy, Sammy. Give him a taste of old Electrotease."

Sam knew well enough to keep the hard as the first.

Each spasm was telegraphed by a bellows moan, throaty and wild, deep from the kid's chest. I've never heard anything before or since quite like it.

The kid shot twelve times, believe it or not, but only those first two made it as far as his glazed image. I caught the lesser spurts in my hand, lubed my dripping dick with the cream and did what I'd been wanting to do since we first stretched open the kid's rear door. I sank myself into that luscious young heat and began slowly pumping myself silly.

And you probably think that's where our little symphonic samba ends, right?

Wrong.

We worked our toy boy for several wonderful hours, me in the back saddle (my favorite spot), and Sam up front with the toys.

voltage low, just enough to give me a bleed-through jolt each time the juice kicked in. Still, it must have been a new experience for Chris because he acted as if he were strapped into "Old Smokey" at the end of Death Row.

The microtorch was the choreography for the last major movement of the kid's dance. In Sam's creative fingers, it played a wicked weaver-work of heat through those swaying fronds of pins.

The kid bucked and shrieked as the heat bit into his nuts, and with a little coaching from Sam, he dirtied up the mirror a second and then a third time, screaming his cum agony when the torch touched those points of metal sheathing his dick.

Before the last of the heat had a chance to dissipate, Sam switched on the generator again and thumbed on the "Pricker switch," a circuit which spikes the voltage by doubling it. That's when I did a little bellowing of my own and unloaded, pumping myself dry inside the kid's slippery hole.

"Sam, you prickhead. I knew you'd pull that stunt."

I pulled out and flopped down while Sam sloshed some beer down his throat and then fed some to Chris and me. The kid looked pretty limp and wrung out and for once, he wasn't staring into that mirror at himself. Both his dick and his head drooped low, and sweat dripped from his balls.

We fed him some more beer and let him toke long and deep on the weed before we started to dismantle the display. It's not a high to come down on too much pain, and we were pleased with Chris's performance. We wanted him to remember that night with as much pleasure as we would, and still do.

The pins and needles came out with slightly less fuss than they went in, Sam being careful to spray everything with a slippery solution of detergent and Beta-dine before it was pulled free, followed up with an astringent which caused more yelps of pain.

Chris even managed another boner, half-way through the process. Good grass will do that, though, pumping up the pain-pleasure involution.

We led him into the open stall shower outside the tack room and cleaned him up good, checking the puncture marks in his skin and giving him his marching orders on how to keep them clean while they healed. The larger holes in his bag were discolored, but we were pleased to see there was no persistent bleeding.

Later, we let him count the needles and pins we'd used, just to confirm what he'd accomplished. He was somewhat pissed when Sam showed him the rigged numbers in the Mason jar, but he cracked up when we played the tape of his performance and showed him the look on his face as he reached inside that jar the last time.

Scars? Yeah, he'll have three small sets of scars on the inside of his ballbag, if you check it real close. And if you examine his tits very carefully, you'll spot two sets of very tiny holes. Chris has just told us, however, that he plans to have all five sites mounted with permanent body jewelry, and guess who he wants to do the piercing?

Only question now is, can we talk him into losing that Arkansas baggage? And if so, does he wanta watch the surgery in our mirror?

Is this part of what's in store for the Stainless Steel Toyboy? Who knows? If it is, will it be what he really wants? Check with a toyboy in your neighborhood... (illustration by Jock)

The man read Boar Hog's message to "ALL" on Houston Shoat Gutter, a bulletin board service, "From Boar Hog—I want a man to fuck my lights out and then still like to be friends with a heavy S&M bottom. Anyone out there that matches this idea of mine."

The man wrote in response, a private message, saying: "I like your fantasy. I'll give you my pre-Dick-tion. I am the Man you want to meet."

"The Man who wants to meet you first makes a date with you, to meet you at your place. He instructs you, every time you have to piss on the day before you get together, to piss into plastic bottles, cap them, and keep them in the refrig. When He arrives, He has a big dog with Him. After the first awkward minutes of introduction, He instructs you to get the saved-up piss and pour it into a large pan. He pasteurizes it at 97 degrees for four minutes. He turns off the burner and leaves the piss to cool. He then shucks his clothes and removes your clothes, what few there are, from you. Taking your big thick cock and balls in His massive left hand He slowly squeezes them, tighter and tighter until He sees you wince. Then He squeezes using both His hands, and enjoys watching you silently squirm with pleasure. You gasp as He handles your genitals, liking it, wanting more. He lets go with one hand and takes a butt plug and eases it into your asshole, fucking you with the big plug for a few moments. He then takes you by the wrists and ties them with a latex strap, behind your back. He instructs you to get down on your knees. You are looking directly at His big 9"+ thick dick. He then takes a hood and puts it on you, shutting out your vision of Him. The last thing you see is His huge dick and you want it. The next thing you feel, still kneeling, is the butt plug being removed; and the Man pulling you forward so your head is on the floor and your ass is in the air. Then the dog mounts you and fast-fucks your bitch-hole. The dog's dick knots up in your fuckhole, and you enjoy the feel of the trained dog trying to pull out of you gently. The dog does pull out, and it then licks your asshole clean. The Man puts the butt plug back in your fuckhole and lifts you back into the kneeling position. You feel the dog breathing heavily on your hard dick. The dog begins to lick your dick and gently clamp down upon it, so you feel the prickle of its canine teeth. The sensation causes your dick to swell all the harder and your ass to suck the butt plug deeper into you. The Man instructs you to piss, because the dog wants your piss after licking your ass. You first let a generous stream of piss loose and the dog tightens its grip on your dick causing you to regulate the flow. As you gain control of your piss flow the dog's bite is eased. As you finish pissing the dog licks the end of your dick. With great ease and smoothness the Man lifts you up and carries you to your bedroom in his powerful arms. He unties your wrists, and lays you out on your bed, face up. But your freedom is short-lived because He ties your wrists, then ankles, to the bed in the spread-eagle position. You have some restricted freedom of movement because the Man wants it that way. He then removes the latex mask from your sweaty face. The light, even though the bedroom is darkened, is almost too much for you, so you see the Man through a haze. You are hot. You are burning hot. Totally turned on to this Man. You see the dog is resting at the bedroom door.

You see a full enema bag, complete with a hose and nozzle, hanging near the bed. As you wonder how it came to be there, the Man reaches the butt plug and removes it with a great "ssllluuurrppooooopp." He tosses it aside. With one hand he raises you all off the bed and instructs you to hold the position. He begins inserting his own personal 15" x 3-1/2" diameter dildo he has brought with him into your asshole. Your dick jumps with joy. Your face breaks into cold sweat. Your body is on fire with lust for this Man. And, the memory of His dick, the last view you had of it hanging near your face before the mask went on, keeps you desirous to suck the big Fucker off. The dildo works deeper and deeper, very slowly, very deliberately, into your fuckhole until the Man is satisfied you have at least ten inches of it up your ass. He then wraps a leather thong around it and ties the ends to your hips to keep it in place. The Man orders you to lower your butt. As you do, the dildo pushes harder and further up into you. You are in pain, exquisite, sexual pain. It is like the first time you got fucked with a dildo. Ahhh! The stretching, the burning, the tearing, feels good. Then the Man moves astraddle you and you see His big long dick hanging bigger and longer than before. You know this is the biggest goddamn dick you have ever seen in your whole fucking life. This is the dick of death. The dick to die for. And, it is here. So many things are racing through your mind, but you are most aware of the greatness of the pleasure the man is bringing to you. A huge drop of pre-cum drops from His dick and lands on your lips; like a teaspoon of hot honey being poured on your mouth. You think you are dreaming. You want the dream to intensify. As you lick the precious juice from your lips you realize you are also licking the soft lips of the dick of your dreams. The Man begins to force it into your ever-so-hungry mouth. Deeper! Deeper and deeper. The dick keeps sliding easily deeper and deeper passing over your tongue, past the sphincter in your throat, all the way down to your Adam's apple. The Man's dick is like a rod of hot iron which fills you completely. You wonder if you can breathe. But, you are not afraid. For the first time the Man grabs your tits in His rough hands and gives them a fierce wrenching, tearing, twist which causes you to give a mighty jolt that forces air past the Man's dick, and you just as forcefully exhale. Knowing you can breathe, and take this mammoth dick all the way, brings you to greater excitement. "Oh Satan, please don't let me cum.

Oh mighty angel of lust-fulfilling sex, help me hang onto this moment," is your prayer. And, like Satan heard you, the Man grabs your dick and wraps it tightly with another leather lace. You know you cannot cum until the Man lets you, and your mind gets off your dick and back to the one you have in you. (All this happens very fast)—(mind fast). And, you breathe and suck, with the big Fucker in you, until your throat aches and feels raw.

Still the man keeps his dick buried in your gullet, taking it out occasionally so you can see it, and to tantalize you into thinking you might lose it. While going back into your warm mouth and throat for the last time, the Man's piss begins to flow, fast and furious. He is sticking His dick down your throat while pissing, too. You think you might drown, but you don't care. The piss is better tasting than you thought it might be. You eagerly drink His piss. The piss flow ceases and He pulls the heavily laden dick out of you. He gets off the bed and begins to untie your ankles and wrists, while ordering you to lay still. Your dick is bound and you feel like you need to piss, you need to cum, you need to, need to, need to... Oooooooo you feel you need tooooooo gooooooo in some way or another. But the tie on your dick prevents you from go-o-o-ing. The Man unfastens the thongs holding the dildo in place, and quickly pulls the plug so you painfully feel its vacuum trying to pull your guts out. He then rolls you over on your side and puts the head of His dick to your asshole. You swear it is larger than the dildo in diameter, certainly much larger than the butt plug. And, sure enough, as the first time with a Man (now with greater intensity), the pain of Him entering your hot, moist, shithole sends you soaring to new ecstatic heights. "Jesus Christ," you think, "I've got a man straight from Hell. What a hell of a surprise." And, you smile. And, you smile. Satan's dick of fire is cauterizing you. And, you smile. And, you smile. You realize you have never known or been fucked by such a man as this. And, you smile. It is soooooo good! And, you smile. It is like you have turned into another person. You think you have lost your fucking mind; and don't really give a fuck if you have. He fucks you slow and easy, making sure you feel every inch of His humongous dick, every subtle move, even when He is not intentionally moving it. It is like His dick has a life of its own. Moving around inside you while buried in you all the way. You have forgotten your own dick until the Man reaches over and loosens the binding upon it. He gently strokes your dick and you quickly rise to the point of cumming. Still He strokes your dick and you do not cum. You are amazed at the skills of the Man. Never, at any time, have you thought about not coming when you were on the verge of shooting. So, this is a complete and wonderful surprise to you. You feel the Man's dick in your gut, swelling, and you know it won't be long before He gets his rocks off in you. But, you are surprised again. The Man lets go of your raging dick and pulls His Fucker out of your ass. You are a bit disappointed, until you feel the Man's hands parting your ass cheeks, and feel His effortless breath, and His tongue exploiting your softened asshole. The Man tells you He hates dirty assholes. Especially, He doesn't like the asshole He fucks to be dirty. Then He begins to suck and lick as you have never been sucked and licked. Your wand is straight out from your body, the cool air of the room dancing on its head. It really sparkles. You feel the Man's right hand slithering near your ass, as He moves his lips from your lips. Like silk, the finest massive hand you have ever had, slowly snaking, slips into you. The fisting is thoroughly working your ass. So smooth. So right. Aaaahh! So good. His skilled arm and fist buried, as though a permanent part of your inner being, brings you into a completely new dimension of mind. You close your eyes and you see glimpses of a new world where gay men are in charge of everything. It is a peaceful, naked-bodied (including those not so beautiful), luxury for all, with a knowing that there is a great unbreakable harmony throughout all the universe, world. You know you are looking into the gay leathermen's heaven. For all the trappings are there. All the officials are wearing harnesses, belts and the like. There is a specific style of harness for the lawmen, another for the pundits, etc. Everyone in the place is there because of their choice to be there. And, you hear a voice saying, "On earth as it is in heaven? It is no less true of Hell; no matter what the opposition may say. People have always put their enemies in the worst of lights when talking to their friends, or would be converts. This is just another of the many 'mansion planets' in Hell, which Satan has prepared in the name of Lucifer, for homosexuals." Then you reason, "It is good to be here." The Man is aware he has brought you to the experience He wanted to share with you, because it is also his experience. Slowly, the Man removes His hand, so your reverie will last and you will not be jolted back into the present too fast. You come around as his fingers leave your hole. The man moves up over you, turns your belly down and instructs you to draw your legs up so your buttocks are up, and your balls and dick are hanging free. He puts His big fuck stick in your asshole again. This time, since you are used to Him, He enters quickly, and begins pumping you hard; slamming His loins into your buttocks. His low-hangers are flying, slapping your balls and occasionally hitting your dick. Your dick gets harder and harder. His hot hairy balls and his living male gender staff are making your blood boil. Your dick juices flow like they have never flowed before, getting the bed wet; almost like you are peeing in bed. Then you feel the quick swelling of His meat again, and at the very moment He begins to shoot, His throat breaks out with great, deep-throated, roaring noises—like an animal. He pulls His balls out and grabs the head of your dick which instantly bursts open. His balls are like fire, your cum the extinguisher. Yes, your cum is the extinguisher. The intensity is over. You lay still. It is peaceful with the Man lying peacefully beside you.

...making sure you feel every...

You are lost in your reverie. You fall asleep for a short nap. What beautiful dreams you had. While you are recovering, the Man puts His clothes on, lights a cigarette, and waits for you to fully awaken. He then gets up and heads for the door, dog at heel. You ask if you will see Him again. He says, "Of course. That was our agreement." You then remember, next time you will be controlling the sexual experience. Then you will suck the big Fucker off. God almighty, you want to taste this manly male creature's cum. His next words to you are, "See you later, friend." Then he opens the door and the dog walks out, and then He walks out and closes the door behind Him."

He has spent four hours with you. You remember the enema bag and go to check on it. You find it empty. You wonder what happened to whatever was in it. Then you go check the piss you left on the stove to cool. The pan is empty. You are pleasantly puzzled, then you laugh a very happy laugh, and say, "Well, I'll be goddamned."

"Boar Hog, I have purposely written this with a minimum of paragraphs, punctuations, etc. When we come together, if you want me as a friend, there will be no time for extraneous paragraphs, indentations, and other gaps and pauses. The sensual spell we enter must not be broken into parts, but must flow as one... continuous... uninterrupted... experience." "Drop me a line on the BBS, if you think I might meet your qualifications."

REACHING FOR ETERNITY PLAYING ON THE EDGE

A survey of the games and the players by Joseph W. Bean

Memorize, then follow these instructions: Tie a string around your neck, close your eyes, hold your breath, prick the back of your hand with a needle, put out a match with the tips of a finger and thumb, then quietly pray that you should be permitted now, immediately, within the next one second to pay the debt accrued through your misdeeds and imperfections up to this moment in your life. Now, breathe. Open your eyes. Remove the string from your neck. And, only then, read on.

Now, sitting here at the center of your existence, so calm and collected that you could read a magazine, you have just touched several of the techniques by which some leathermen play all the way out to the edge where the danger of never returning or of returning maimed is very real. Through power games involving strangulation or hanging, sensory deprivation, breath control, piercing and pain, fire, and the relinquishing of all control and self-defense, some men (and women!) place themselves at the very fringe of life for reasons only crudely approximated by even the most carefully worded explanations.

No player on the edge wants to unduly encourage you to go beyond your own physical or psychological limits, but some of us can't resist going. Life itself seems dull when it is unchallenged. To be without confirmed Being, to breathe without treasuring breath, to sense without a framework within which to be thrilled by sensation... these things are less than we can accept. We want everything and we want to know it is real, so we test all we know, feel, intuit, sense, and are. The testing is also growth and awakening. It is, in short, becoming. And, in terms of our sexuality, it is Playing On The Edge.

On these pages, mingled with my own experiences and reflections on Edge-Games, are the comments and ideas of many other experienced players. Most of them asked—for reasons you will easily understand—not to have their names used. Nonetheless, their contributions are greatly appreciated.

On page 4, you will find my musings on the subject—Playing On The Edge—as they stood before these interviews. If you have not already read that "Off the Top," please, read it now, or don't read what follows here.

Warning: Playing on the edge is not the goal of all SM. Not every player wants or needs to go so far. Not every player can. And no one, least of all a magazine writer/editor, can recommend playing on the edge to anyone. It's not exactly even a matter of choice for most players who undertake extreme scenes. We go, it seems, if we must. And, if we must play on the edge, we will . . . one way or another.

The following are some of the paths SM players take to The Edge where danger becomes an encouraging wind pushing us forward into the possibility of Being more. Don't imitate us. Don't imitate anyone. But don't let anyone stand in your way when you are strong enough to be yourself.

(No more caveats, warnings, or pulled punches.)

HANGING

"Hanging. It's scary. Scares me too, at times . . . You are really giving up all control. It's a tremendous rush, just thinking about stepping off the stool. As soon as you start to float . . . Afterwards, you know you've really had an out-of-body experience, especially if you've passed out for any time. After . . . then my dick is just raging hard!"

The player whose trip is a noose around his neck and nothing firm under foot goes on: "You don't want to die at all, you just want the rush.

And he explains: "I didn't choose this fetish. I discovered it early, early, early on. In the fourth grade, I just wrapped something around my neck, and I came. I don't know why I happened to wrap anything around my neck. Now, if I'm with someone and he wants to punch me in the stomach, that would hurt. But if he wants to put his hands on my neck, that's different . . . Yes! To me it's a nice form of domination."

For this player, the fantasies that might be associated with hanging are not very important. He realizes that some people have hanging fantasies or fetishes that involve the US Cavalry, other military scenarios, POW or criminal trappings, or—very commonly—cowboy and wild west things. "For me," he says, "it's not the whole fantasy that leads up to it. My thing is doing it!"

He knows how dangerous his game is. He lost a friend who was into hanging, but that was when the man was doing it solo, without either the power dynamic or the safety of a Top running the scene. He also knows the danger of being too well-known for his fetish. If anyone gets hurt or dies from hanging, he understands, being out there is an invitation to misunderstandings and accusations. "It's like being in the closet all over again," he says, "but you wouldn't believe how many people I correspond with who are into this. . . and they're all closeted about it." In fact, while they are pursuing ecstatic experience together, while they know the absolutely most intimate details of one another's spiritual lives and psyches, the men in this scene often only know each other by pseudonyms. The same is probably true of many SM players who push through to The Edge.

WHIPPING

Ordinarily, we wouldn't think of whipping as particularly a way of playing on the edge. It's SM play. Normal stuff. But . . . carried to a certain extreme, whipping or any pain scene can carry the bottom (and, at best, also the Top) to the far reaches of the known psychological universe.

The first time I was seriously whipped, almost the first time I even saw floggers and whips, I didn't have the idea of safety. I knew I was not safe. I didn't have any concept of whether what I wanted and was finally getting could be called sane or not, but I knew that, for me, it was necessary. And there was no discussion that could have been considered "getting my consent." I was there, therefore I was available. Consent to anything the experienced Tops wanted was considered universal. I was not allowed to speak, so the thought of protesting never occurred to me.

However completely I might now disapprove of those conditions, they existed then, and I am very glad they did. That first real whipping went on and on. I passed the point very quickly at which I could simply resist the pain. Soon I was crying out very loudly, keeping an edge of consciousness assigned to seeing that I did not cry out in words—that would have broken the rule against speaking, I thought. Then, the pain was there, at every stroke, eventually filling and overflowing me almost without regard for the strokes of the whip. And, like a cool rain falling directly into my brain and heart there eventually began to be "spots" of painlessness, points of lightness. It was as though the pained, suspended boy was being left behind. Something else that I recognized as myself was being liberated. Like a stamp peeling loose, as the raindrops of coolness touched me, I floated free.

There was no longer any question of resisting, that seemed as ridiculous as refusing to feel the warmth of the sun while standing in its light. My body continued to be whipped, intensely but never brutally, as I drifted. It never dawned on me to think of this as an out-of-body experience, but it may be that those words apply. It never seemed quite right to call it a religious experience, although I wouldn't be shy about calling it that today.

Then and there, in Los Angeles, in the 1960s, I discovered that SM can lead to trance, to transcendence, and to the deepest and fullest sense of well being that any physical experience has ever been able to inspire in me. Over the years since, I have discovered that other people make the same discovery all the time, each in his or her own way, each expressing the facts in a different but recognizable language.

David, an Hellfire Inferno regular, has found that whipping can be an Edge Game for himself. He remembers (very well!) a carefully planned scene during an Inferno: He arranged to be whipped by Peter. He was to be in very severe bondage, gagged and blindfolded, secured to a St. Andrew's cross. The whipping tent was deserted when they began, and all he could hear throughout was the music and the cracking of Peter's whips. He was riding the music through the experience, and knew Peter was following the music as well. Then, in his own words, he "just mentally broke down." Another pain bottom might have said it differently, but the moment is one which, in some inexpressible way, we share. "Many times," David says, "I go out of my body, past that threshold of mentally breaking down. And the more experience I have in the scene, the more I want that."

PLAYING WITH FIRE

Fire is powerful as a force and as an image. It's the stuff that nightmares are made of, and it touches people in mysterious ways. This is true even if the fire is burning in trees thousands of miles away, and we're only seeing the television report. Raelynn closes the gap all the way. She puts the fire directly on "your" body. It is not possible to imagine the effects that are unleashed when flames begin dancing on your skin. There is no substitute for experience with this or any Edge Game.

The combination of fire's as primal fear and fire as a direct sensation takes you to The Edge. "With the element of fire," Raelynn explains, "you always have the elements of chance, chaos, and destruction at a split second's notice. Fire is such a passionate element!"

In fact, the actual period when the fire is burning on the bottom's skin is usually only seconds at a time, perhaps up to five seconds, perhaps repeated and moved around on the body. "But with fire on your skin, five seconds is a long, long time. People reach their limit... that wall of fear where they think they're really going to burn. But, you're dealing with reflexes. You have to be really present there, ready to end it. Fire is (playing on the edge) for the Top and the bottom, but the edge that the Top rides on—control—is different from the edge that the bottom rides—fear and actually burning."

PIERCING

Like whipping, piercing is an activity we don't ordinarily think of as playing on the edge. It usually isn't all that extreme, but it can be. When you see Fakir Musafar's piercings, including inch-plus holes in his nipples and vertical tunnels big enough to accommodate meat hooks through his pectorals, you know this is nothing like ear-piercing or even ordinary body piercing.

"I've been playing on the edge by piercing my body," Fakir says, "since 1946, when I was 15. The first time I pushed a needle through my skin, I got rush that was unbelievable. Nobody, but nobody was doing this then." That year, Fakir even pierced his own nasal septum for the first time.

By the following year, he adds, "I pushed to the edge even further." This refers to his first crudely created tattoos done with sewing needles and india ink, and—more to the point—the time he pushed a wooden stake through the side of his chest, attached it to a thong, tied the thong to a tree, and did his first Indian sun dance."

Until he was in his 20s, Fakir's Edge Games were all done solo, but they were changing and growing all along, regardless of the actual limitations of playing alone. By 1955 he was sewing weights to his chest. Starting with 24 small fishing weights, he soon move up to as many as 60 one-pound weights hanging from fishing line running through his flesh. In 1959, he gave himself his first permanently installed piercings, in his nipples, but things shifted into a higher gear in the early 1960s when he found supportive gay male friends.

With his helpers, Fakir was able to fulfill his dream of experiencing the Kavandi, a frame used in Hindu ceremony with up to 100 sword-like rods held in place around the body, all their tips piercing the Kavandi-bearer's skin at the same time. With the advent of helpful friends, there also came the need to think differently about the dangers he was facing. And Fakir discovered that he had to sign non-liability waivers covering his helpers in the event of his injury or death.

Friends and waivers in place, Fakir soon did his first hanging from piercings. The first one used stainless steel wires pushed through his chest muscles, and lasted for several minutes. By the following year we was hanging "as long as (he) could stand it," which turned out to be the beginning of his most famous Edge Game, the O-Kee-Pa, hanging in a tree by ropes attached to hooks in his now-permanent, horizontal, deep chest piercings.

"Through all this playing on the edge with piercing, I not only got erotic turn on, but early in the game it lapsed over into altered states," Fakir says. He remembers many out-of-body experiences in great detail, and understands completely the state of his body hanging back there in the tree while he is "out."

"If it's death," he says, "then death be it... the benefits are too great to pass it up." He closes the subject very elegantly: "Dangerous, but significant."

PLAYING WITH STRANGERS

Another very surprising bias at which some players work their way to the edge is playing with strangers, placing themselves at risk one way or another in Edge Games that involve serious questions of trust, experience, and interpersonal understanding. For some people, for instance, this means going out of their way not to know the people they play with at SM parties. Of course, there remains the safety net of the play space, its screening for attendance, and the presence of other players. The next step in this direction is to play with unfamiliar partners--perhaps respondents to a personal ad--in private, or to pass up the "getting to know you" part in a bar pick up. As one player put it, "When I don't know the other player, it's my mind against his," referring both to finding out what to trust and not trust to the other person, and out maneuvering him in the scene itself.

Other players go at this differently and more dangerously. They intentionally start fights with other people, then either try to beat the other guy, or try to get all the beating they can bear before losing consciousness or scaring their opponent away. This whole area of Edge Game is hard to grasp if you are determined (as I am) that SM per se requires the informed participation of both parties (even when the question of consent is less than totally clear).

Nonetheless, there are further reaches of the Edge Game of Stangers. At least two people report that their greatest thrill, one they definitely see as an SM Edge Game, involves baiting policemen and other people in authority, intentionally attempting to provoke violent confrontation with a trained professional whose aggression they will resist only to the extent that resisting increases the interaction.

I could argue with this way of approaching the need to reach the edge and taste its intoxicating and soul-shaking winds, but this is a survey, not a verdict. Enough said. You have the idea.

PSYCHOLOGICAL TERROR

Here's the scene: Inferno. It's a torture contest. The bottom has a piece of information. The Top's job is to get at that information by torture within an allotted time period. The Top sends his "victim" off to break a bunch of beer bottles--no questions asked--and bring back the jagged bottom halves of the bottles that can still be stood upright. Then the bottom is wrapped in a couple of layers of fishnet and suspended with 12-pound fishing line from a frame in such a way that his body is hanging very scant inches above the sharp, upward-pointing broken bottles.

The contest judges come by and announce loudly that the scene cannot be allowed, the Top will just have to be disqualified. But the Top persuades them that torture is torture is torture, and he is allowed to continue. When the bottom--more than a little shaken by the fact that his situation frightened even the hardened contest judges at Inferno--will not give up the essential bit of information, the Top snips through one of the fishing lines. The bottom feels his weight shift. That's real. He feels the sharp glass points below thrusting hungrily up. That's the beginning of terror.

The bottom begins to bless his grade school arithmetic teachers as he computes that 50 to 60 pieces of 12-pound line can hold X amount of weight. His own body plus the fishnets weigh only Y, so he is safe down to some Z number of remaining fishing line supports. A number that is reached all too quickly. Has the Top also calculated correctly? Is he going to misjudge the bottom's weight or be overconfident about the exact strength of the fishing line? Finally, there is only one question, intentionally or not, is the Top going to allow the bottom to drop, with no more protection than a fishnet, into a sea of broken glass?

It seems he is. The bottom, being prudent... thrilled, terrorized, past all ordinary states of consciousness comes to the conclusion that losing the contest is not such a terrible thing. He divulges the secret information. Crash. As soon as the Top hears what he has been trying to get out of the bottom, he slashes the last fishing lines with his knife.

With the force of all his body weight, the bottom falls flat, about eight inches onto the ground. The broken bottles have been moved away. The judges' worries were part of the plan. The contest is over, and this psychological torture takes second place to a scene in which breath control and a cattle prod have been used.

"It took me a long time to come down emotionally," the bottom says, "when I was at the breaking point, I was trying to climb out of the net."

Terror scenes are not easily set up in ordinary SM-partner negotiations. There have to be cards not shown, points of trust pushed and twisted, surprises, and tactics not revealed. No one is going to experience terror—certainly not bio-chemical producing, primal roots level terror—if he goes into the scene with all the assurances and certainties of what we ordinarily call Safe, Sane, and Consensual Play. It just doesn't work that way. If I ask you to jump out of your chair and shout Boo! at me, I can't really be too frightened if you do.

Terror, like fire, is about forces that stretch back into the unrecorded beginnings of human emotions. But it isn't so much the fear, it isn't even about the body chemistry initiated by the fear . . . the thing that is life changing about visiting the edge on the broomstick of terror is the strength, self-reliance and peace that well up as we deal either acceptingly and triumphantly with the risks we perceive. If you can get that, you can probably grasp the whole phenomenon of Edge Games.

THAT'S NOT ALL

When you are talking about the extreme in anything, it is always possible to conceive what is more extreme. In many directions out from what is discussed above, there are other trips, other Games. Some of them we would all find more extreme. Others we would disagree about. And, apart from all that, there are obviously Edge Games not mentioned above: Knives, guns, and branding; razor blades and scalpels; genital modification and dungeon surgery, heavy punching and boxing; intense, active identification as a dog or other animal and even certain approaches to sexual slavery.

The Edge, you see, is where you find it. Far from the edge is life the way it is. As we move toward the less familiar and less lighted arenas of action and being, something else begins to be possible, something born in danger and uncertainty that ends in freedom and clarity. That movement, for some of us, is made in SM, made by playing on the edge.

LEATHER BULLETIN BOARD

GMSMA ENTERS SECOND DECADE

To do anything well for ten years is certainly worthy of celebration, but no outsider could have predicted the scale or success of GMSMA's "A Decade of S/M Pride" weekend. Barry Douglas, Chairman for the event, and Gil Kessler, GMSMA President, planned and coordinated a schedule of social, informational, educational, and entertainment options that kept everybody up and at it from Friday through Sunday (3/8-10/91).

Some of the surprises worth mentioning—which really means worth imitating—included a very broad-range SM art show with some works being for sale, others not; a hands-on "exploratorium" of steel restraints; a shave and haircut parlor (shave what? anything from the toes up!) ... and a slate of 15 carefully composed panel discussions of SM subjects.

One of the unique elements of this conference was the invited participation of women in a Gay Men's SM Activists event. Women from LSM (Lesbian Sex Mafia) were especially active and visible, but all were welcome, regardless of gender, orientation, etc.

GMSMA, its officers and members are to be congratulated, not only for 10 years of important work in the SM community, but also for producing an excellent leather/SM conference. Well done, guys.

The now venerable (Yes, 10 is venerable in this narrow field of activism.) GMSMA continues to provide forums, services, and social opportunities to the community in New York. Six educational events, two mixers at the Eagle's Nest, and a Leather Pride Night (6/23) are all on the Spring 91 schedule, along with GMSMA's eleventh appearance in NYC's Gay Pride March (6/30).

OTHER BIG TENS

Even though every year is anniversary year for every organization that survives, once in a while we are reminded by the anniversary announcements that there have been periods of special "start-up" activity in the past. Obviously, 1981 was a special moment in our history as a lot of people are celebrating capital-T ten in 1991.

SM Gays in London—a very hotly active group of late, especially with all the legal hamnmners coming down on homosexuals and SM people in England—reaches its Tenth on July 17. The date will be celebrated with a "Big Birthday Bash at the Opera on the Green, Shepherd's Bush." Like GMSMA, SM Gays makes it a point to participate visibly in annual Gay Pride festivities. This year, the London march is slated for Saturday, June 29.

The SF Eagle, which might even be called the "flagship bar" of San Francisco's leather/SM community will be Ten at this spring, celebrating—as usual—on a Monday through Wednesday schedule, April 22-24.

The Florida Brotherhood of Clubs recently celebrated its Tenth with a major run. We have no details, but we keep hearing how great it all was, how incredibly well it was done, how... pardon us, just reporting... Fa-a-abulous-s-s it was.

Cincinnati Chaps' has announced Bunkhouse II, their Tenth anniversary run, for June 7-9, 1991. It may not quite be what you expect in the way of a bike run because the club is providing the transportation for at least part of the event, and the whole weekend is scheduled for locations in the city of Cincinnati. A number of bars are participating. The fees for admission, transportation between events, and food seem very reasonable, ranging from $60 for people who are providing their own accommodations to $135 for guys who have to have a private room for the weekend.

Contact the club by calling Bob at (606) 491-0274, or Dave at (513) 751-2513 to get an application.

Satyricons MC of Las Vegas is also up to the big one-oh. They too are celebrating with a run, The Best of Times, on May 3-5. This is not a cityscape run. After a bust on Friday night and eye-openers on Saturday, it's a "bike and bus enduro." Dinner and the club's famous show fill out the evening Saturday, with eye-openers, brunch, and the presentations of awards on Sunday. If you don't know the desert areas of Southern Nevada and the neighboring parts of California and Arizona, you should consider getting in touch with the Satyricons, and tagging along on one of their out of town runs. Write to Skip Scoggins, Satyricons MC, P. O. Box 19058, Las Vegas, NV 89132.

NEW IMsL SELECTED

While International Ms Leather is a newer title and the titleholder gets somewhat less attention still than her male counterpart, International Mister Leather, things are definitely heating up and moving into higher gears. The newly selected IMsL, Kay Hallanger, is said to be a powerhouse from whom we can expect a year of meaningful fireworks. Kay is an associate member of Open Road Riders of Chicagoland. Drummer will find out more about her soon, and bring you a report or interview.

FANTASY 91 RELOCATED

Earlier reports were that Fantasy 91, the third of Dustin Logan's and Bob Ewing's annual super-bashes, would be held in Tulsa, OK. Fine, Tulsa is good, and you don't argue with an event that has already turned over at least $9,000.00 to charities. But, things change. And, in this case, the old saying is remarkably apt: The more things change, the more they stay the same. The celebration of leather in America's heartland, co-sponsored by The Leather Journal, will take place in Omaha, Nebraska, as the two previous Fantasy annuals did.

Fantasy is a grand time open to all, and it's produced in a combination of styles: American Traditional, including a picnic, and Contemporary Leather, including trooping of club colors, appearances by a remarkable array of leather titleholders, etc. Despite all the excitement generated by this event each year, tickets remain very reasonable—after you get yourself to Omaha, that is—at just $25, $30 after August 1. The event will be August 16-18.

Note to leather titleholders: It's not too late to add yourself to the slate of dignitaries appearing at Fantasy 91. If you have been invited, answer soon. If you haven't, forgive the oversight, and get in touch with Dustin and Bob.

For details, tickets, or to get yourself included in any way in Fantasy 91, write: Fantasy Productions, P. O. Box 6262, Omaha, NE 68106-0262.

WHAT IN THE WORLD?

SM GAYS in London, England, is spearheading the fight against recent invasions of the privacy of SM men. Some months ago, arrests and convictions on the basis of consensual SM acts in private homes stirred the organization to call a meeting under the banner "No Gay Witchhunt." Even the riled-up organizers must have been surprised when 200 men and women in leather showed up. And the fight goes on, both for the freedom of those already jailed and for the liberties of people not yet directly touched by England's progressively intolerant attitudes toward all gays and leather gays in particular. SM Gays spokesman Derek Cohen described the situation accurately, if humorously, when he said, "Anyone indulging in a bit of slap and tickle ought to wonder which side of the law they are on."

SM lesbians found out which side of the law they were on when they attempting to attend a party at the Trades Club in Leeds, England. One woman wearing handcuffs and a whip on her belt was asked to remove the SM paraphernalia. She refused—as any decent human being living in a free country would—and a riot ensued. Six pro-SM women were arrested. (I keep saying it, but it's a truth even I have trouble accepting: It's war!—JWB)

Meantime, a proposed new law in the once-great land of England would stiffen penalties for gay people under existing laws against "procuring, indecency, and solicitation." The bill, seen as an anti-cruising ordinance, would not change things for heterosexuals or lesbians, just gay men, specifically. Locals say that the statutes for which the penalties are

VANCOUVER INTERNATIONAL LEATHER PRIDE WEEKEND

Leather people, converge! Vancouver—perhaps primed by its experience with Gay Games last year—is now preparing to host a major Leather Pride Weekend on August 2-5. Among the highlights of the weekend, at least from our point of view, is the Mr. Northwest Drummer contest which brings together contestants from throughout the Northwestern US, Alaska, and Western Canada. The weekend also includes the local Gay Pride Parade, and this is a good one because it ends up winding along the beaches to Sunset Beach for the Gay Pride Festival. You are encouraged to bring along your own towel and suntan lotion (sun-block, isn't it?).

The way the Northwestern area works in the Mr. Drummer system, Vancouver only expects to host a regional contest every third year. So, each one is a very special event.

COLD IS ON

Colorado Outdoor Leather Dykes (COLD) is pleased to announce that they will be holding their first SM Weekend for Womyn Only, July 12-14, 1991. The weekend, called "When Hell Freezes Over," will be a roughin' it, Rocky Mountain, Denver-area camping event. Workshops, vendors, entertainment, and lots of kinky womyn is what the producers are promising. After all the years that women have had "Inferno Envy," maybe men are increased by the changes under consideration are the very once used when "pretty policemen" stake out cruisy toilets and parks, come on to cruisers, and then arrest them.

More news of England: British gays and lesbians are currently fighting more new regulations that will specifically prohibit them from becoming foster parents.

It just seems that the legacy of the Thatcher years (like our own Reagan era in the US) will go on for a long time to come.

BACK IN THE SUPPOSED LAND OF THE FREE

There's good news, good news, good news, etc. In Ohio, according to a Lambda Legal Defense and Education Fund release, a state "appellate court ruled (in March) that the state's domestic violence laws must be interpreted to cover lesbian and gay domestic partners." It's a rather twisted sort of victory, but it's a victory every time a government body is forced to confess that there is such a thing as a gay relationship.... Or, so it seems.

In Illinois, the state Supreme Court upheld the murder conviction of a man who killed because he hated gays. How could this even be a question, right? Murder is murder, right? But, no. Murder with such a good reason as that the victim is gay or that he was offensive (by being either gay or in leather) has often been dismissed as justifiable homicide, merely manslaughter, or whatever. Another weird little victory which we must not consider so very little. In Hawaii, Governor John Waihee signed a bill instituting a ban on job discrimination based on sexual orientation. The Governor's office logged over 2,000 calls opposing the bill in the 10 days before the signing, but most institu-going to start experiencing "Hell Freezes Over Envy." An interesting turn of events.... The cost of the weekend—no men!—including all meals from Friday dinner to Monday breakfast will be just $100.00. For more information, write: COLD, P. O. Box 18444, Denver, CO 80218.

ENTRE NOUS PILGRIMAGE

Entre Nous of Boston is looking for contestants for the 1991 Mr. EntreNous/P-Town Leather competition. Their call reads like this, "Wanted: Hot leather studs to compete for major prizes and the honor of Mr. EntreNous/P-Town Leather. The Big Event will be on October 18, 19, 20 in Provincetown, Mass, and will take place during our P-Town Pilgrimage." Contestants are warned (or do I mean promised?) that they will compete in four ways: Judges' interviews, hot leather shorts, full leather regalia, and fantasies. The winner will find among his prizes trips to a leather weekend in Washington, DC, to IML in Chicago, to Florida for a vacation, and to P-Town Pilgrimage next year to participate in the next contest. Leather merchandise prizes are expected to total over $1,000.00 in value. Now, the prizes are hardly a good reason to seek a leather title, but it sounds like these are prizes that could ease the strain of holding the title and putting it to good use. Meantime, contestant or not, Pilgrimage sounds like a hot time. Might as well be there.

tions—including churches—went on record as supporting the new civil rights legislation. Hurrah for Hawaii, but how is it possible that Hawaii is just the third state to provide protection from job discrimination for gay people? And, finally, in Texas, The Dallas Gay Alliance Credit Union is drowning in applications for the world's first "gay" credit card. What is a gay credit card? Well, in this case it is an ordinary MasterCard that has the following in large purple type: "Dallas Gay Alliance Credit Union." That's it. Whether the excitement of credit card users, causing thousands of people to request the new card, is about having a card that says GAY on it or not is an interesting question. It may be instead that gay people are flocking to the credit union for the same reason they flooded into the (long since defunct) gay-operated Atlas Savings Bank in San Francisco: Just because gay money should enrich, as a matter of choice, gay people and gay institutions, putting control where the profits go... in gay hands.

Watch for future "What in the World?" columns where Drummer will squeeze a few salient words out of world and national news stories just to let you know what's happening. If you are especially interested in a given story, check with your local gay (or mainstream) media for more details, or get in touch with the news sources and news makers yourself.

CROSS ROADS

WHERE LEATHERMEN MEET

By placing an ad in this section, a bar or other business is telling you that they welcome Leathermen.

By accepting their ad, Drummer is telling you that the bar has been recommended by a Leather/SM club or a recognized individual in the community as a good place to meet and socialize with other Leathermen. In larger cities, these will be THE leather bars; in other areas, they will be the more general purpose bars where Leathermen do go to socialize.

DON ROBERT

MR NEW ENGLAND DRUMMER

Photography by S. Savage

DON ROBERT

Mr. New England Drummer

Don Robert, who wowed the crowd with a "vampire in leather" fantasy, was sponsored in the Mr. Drummer Finals by the Riders MC of Boston. He's a 28 year old, 6 foot tall, 176 lb green-eyed animal... trainer who brings out the animal (and the trainer) in other guys. In the finals he described himself as "single, but dating, but single." Now he's "married, but happy, but married."

Don came out in leather when he was 18. A fan of Ann Rice and an aspiring vampire, his favorite daytime hobby is training exotic birds and performing with them. He and his lover have three cats, one tortoise, one seven-foot python, and a parrot (a macaw currently in a foster home). One of Don's goals is to be a leader in the fight to end violence against gays; another is to be a spokesman for younger men and a role-model for safe and wild leather-fun.

AFTER FIVE YEARS AS A DOG

THE

In Mach 6, we published this pup's true account of what a dog's life is really like. Older now, he writes that it's time for some new tricks.

by Kai

illustrated by David—Custom Inks

Sir,

i am enclosing a copy of a letter i wrote to a prospective master, and wish to share it with you.

my name is Kai. my story was published in Mach 6, as i sat at the feet, in my nakedness, of Robert Payne who was Editor at the time of Mach and Drummer.

i am older now, since i wrote by the pen of Master Payne's hand, dictating to him my life as Kai—human who became dog to my one true master and owner in Philadelphia. i have matured in my dogdom, fully resolute in what and who i am. Since the death of my owner years ago, due to an overdose of drugs, i have been forced to be human, as painful as it has been; aching at my loss of my human, grieving these past years...

i am at a point now, where i have accepted my state, and now return and seek a new owner. One who feels as deeply as i do, and has interests in this severest type of bondage; a lifetime of no freedom.

A year ago May, i had surgery to repair an old injury, that i never commented on, until the pain became so severe, i lay awake nights suffering lack of sleep days on end. Surgery repaired my injury, and i am healed in body. i am also healed in spirit, as i have accepted my owner's death, and have finally accepted the fact that i was not a reason that contributed to it. i learned he overdosed, my Human, Phil, on street drugs. i am comfortable believing he did not hate me.

When Phil went off and tried to beat me with chain, i thought i was in for it. i did not know at the time, he had started using drugs, 'til his slave rescued me from almost certain death. It wasn't until after i was out of my human's house, and going through shock of both the attempted beating, and the loss of my owner that i discovered what happened. And i have kept this to myself all these years.

You see, Sir, Phil always was direct with me, matter of fact, sometimes painfully direct. i'd never known him to lie to me. Phil was harder on his human slave than he was with me. And i did not know he had started using heroin.

It was funny, i never could tell he was under some influence. Phil was always bright and without a hint of any change in behavior. i found out he received a bad batch, almost triple strength—that killed him eventually.

i grieved a very long time.

Since my days in Philadelphia, 1,825 days ago, to be exact, i found myself in San Francisco, working as a human, watching, waiting and talking to many men. i worked in a hospital for a long while. i even toured the entire state, from California's northern border, to the border where San Diego meets Tijuana, Mexico. i wrote to a prospective Navy Lt. Colonel. We talked, but we never met. At this meeting on the phone, i developed a friendship with this Navy Man—Jim was his name... When he snapped his finger, i jumped. He snapped very loud one day, and that afternoon i flew to San Diego. But i am digressing some. Most people i talked to knew of Kai, some were interested, but no one was prepared for this extreme type of commitment.

Now i am in Houston Texas. i met a human, just a little older than myself, who welcomed me to share his space. He too was interested, but not able to be what i needed to be. i am with this human, still sharing space with him, sharing bills.

i had my surgery, and am healed. And it has taken since 1984, to readjust physically after surgery, and mentally to the fact that now was not the right time for Kai to be Kai. i had to overcome doubt about Phil's reason for dying, and my being back out in the world, fending for myself, rutting around the neighborhood in anxiety, fear and frustration and wondering..."Was it i?" that caused him to do this thing...

i have come back...i am a survivor. i have survived my master ...i have survived injury i incurred with its associated need for surgery...i have survived being forced to work as a human...i have survived dealing with humans older and even younger than myself; from those who wanted to but couldn't, to those inexperienced though eager who were not equipped to handle such an animal as myself. i have known men named Dennis, Terry, Ken, Bill, Bob, Russ...all who threw me a bone and watched what i'd do with it, and then who said, "Sorry. I can't. Pipe dreams... immature. Oh why oh why do you?" And it goes on.

i am ready to close one chapter in my life as a dog, and prepare to enter a new heading in my life story; one with great potential and promise; something that is acquired with time and maturity.

i now submit to you a letter that is written to a potential master and owner who wants to own Kai.

"Hello sir,

my name is Kai. i am responding to your offer of your hand in inquiry into my offer of self as a dog. i offer myself in your service, all that i am, all that i would ever hope to be. i approach you with hope of discovering a relationship with you, Sir. You: a proud, sadistic, mean, leathered Top. i offer myself to be owned as your property, ready to be used, abused for our pleasure, and ready for secure knowledge that i will have no freedom.

Sir, years ago, i was kept by a man in Philadelphia, owned and cared for and treated as if i were a real canine. Reduced from being human, placed in bondage, severe enough to preclude any freedom, i was caged at many times, or kept on the end of a chain leash. i learned the joy of pleasing a human. i became an M to an S, a total slave, not to a master but a slave to being a dog, owned by a master.

i know what it is like to feel the bite of a belt on my butt, the sting of a cat, the searing pain of clamps...and even some painful frustration at not speaking at all but with a bark; my human speech, replaced with the whine, cry and bark of a canine.

i—poor cur that i am—am not worthy of status equal to a slave; but only feel confident and comfortable walking in his shadow, and next to my human.

i have a total of six years experiencing life as a leather dog; the experience of being at a master's often demanding beck and call—used any way he wished. i have had and known the extreme and intense feeling of being owned, of having no freedom, lowered to a state of bonding that exists between man and dog, one too few human equals ever dared to try to experience.

i call out, as if i were a wolf, howling its plea toward the moon in the cool black stillness of night; ears perked, hoping for an answer in a footstep... A voice calling, "dog—come home!"

i have for a long time, suffered from the loss of my master. i have struggled without his presence. i have suffered the agony of a dog, forced to be human; an equal to other humans...an equal, i am not.

i miss the tug of the leash, the discipline when i've been bad. i miss the care in a master's eyes. i miss the feeling that i belong.

i am Kai, a loveable dog, craving to please...to be touched; aching to feel the collar around my neck; the chain that secures me in being owned; the bit of the belt that for many years reassured me that i am cared about.

i have come full circle now; to the point where i again cry for acceptance, only to be free at the end of a leash in my master's presence; knowing i am wanted.

i freely offer to give up my freedom, to give up everything, to even vanish from human society, to give up human identity, and seek to place my life and being into your hands.

i lay my pleas before you, sir. i look up, i watch, i hope, that i will hear your footstep, feel your hand, and hear your voice in answer...

"Kai, come home..."

Sir, you have my permission to publish these letters if you wish.

The Sex and Oil, Plus Mud Etc: The Videos

This month's video sampling is smaller than last, and there's still something for everyone. Well, maybe not. Try again: There's still a lot of strange and interesting stuff. Good! We have tapes from Club Mud, Palm Drive Video, Lee Baldwin, and Christopher Rage. Not one of these tapes has a discernible plot or a single meaningful scrap of dialog. Gotcha, right?

The tape from Club Mud is Motorcycle Mechanics, featuring the club's Brother Duke and his pal Jack. The guys are in a garage with all the trappings of an oil change in progress: Cardboard spread on the floor, a pan catching the oil as it runs out of the "street-legal homemade trike," and beer. They eye each other for a moment, and that is the end of anything approaching a plot, which is fine for the kind of dirty-sex trip you expect from roughneck, long haired, country-bearded guys like these.

Duke smears the crotch of his grease-stiffened pants with the used oil, and the action begins. In no time at all, the men are rubbing each other with the black liquid, sucking on oil-coated dicks, slurping and drooling over oil-dark bodies, and Duke is peeing into Jack's greased-down whiskers. Piss, spit, oil, and two mountainmen in heat . . . that's the whole thing, except that Jack shows off some nice body art along the way, piercings and tattoos that just add to the temporary body art of "oil-painting" on his skin.

"Mechanics" is not going to do it for everyone, believe me. But now that you know what it is, you might as well also know that I sat down expecting to cringe and duck, but the tape kept my attention and . . . well, it did for me what porn videos can do. It's not good clean fun, not by a long shot, but it is fun and it is sexy. This and other club tapes can be ordered from Club Mud, Box 277, Rio Nido, CA 95471. "Mechanics" is $39.00, and it's for you if oil-slimed mountainmen will get you off. If not, maybe you'll like the latest from Christopher Rage. Coming right up.

Rage's titles are always peculiar, and Sex Junkies is no exception. There's plenty of passionately pursued sex here, more than enough to support the title, but no more than we have come to expect from Rage. Still, "Junkies" does what it sets out to do with an almost lyrical pattern of repetition, change, and near repetition. Couple after couple slide and jerk and lurch through cocksucking, fisting, piss drinking, pit licking, tit pulling, drool slurping, face fucking, dick jerking . . . lots of ass eating, some cum shots, gloved and bare handed ass play, a "fisty-nine," lots more ass eating and a bit of face slapping.

Among the players are a few recognizable Drummer faves: Chris Burns and Keith Ardent to mention just two, but all the guys are hot, and the range of types here is pretty broad.

As with "Mechanics," you'll find nothing in "Junkies" but hot guys doing what comes so very naturally to them. If you're ready for "Junkies," order it from Live Video for $54.00 (see ad and order form on page 87 of this Drummer).

Lee Baldwin, as I told you some months ago in this column, has done whatever is the opposite of branching out. That is, instead of running about being in every video in the country, he's mostly staying home these days, making his own videos. Some of Baldwin's home-cooked videos have a very rough-edged, unslick quality to them, but his new one—Assplay 2: The Solos Plus—is sharp and clean and even pro on the technical side. As for content, it's still Baldwin raunching around his way . . . which is also pretty clean, come to think of it.

"The Solos" are two pieces. The first is an enema scene. Before you start squirming (either in joy or disgust), you need to know we are talking clean, clear water. It's water from a garden hose going in and out in playful patterns, more a water show than the kind of enema scene you might have imagined. No, that's not it: More a playful than a raunchy enema. The second solo is called Fruit & Vegetable Salad. In this piece, too, cleanliness is next to videography for Baldwin. Grapes pop in and out (remember, the tape is Assplay 2!); a nice carrot slides in leaving Lee with a fluffy green tail of carrot tops; a banana almost jumps into Baldwin's butt, but pops back out unsquashed (how'd he do dat?) and becomes a snack. The most unusual feat in the hole thing seems to be the orange: The more it squeezes in and out of view, the more it is chased by juice. Whew! Then, yes, the cucumber de rigueur is used for what it is that cucumbers seem to be for.

The Plus of the subtitle's "Solos Plus" is a duo in which Robert Parks—a lithe, blond surprise package to be sure—joins Lee Baldwin for some straight-on fisting action. A very pretty couple they make, too.

One of the good things about Lee Baldwin's home-made videos is that you know what you're buying, exactly. The featured performer will be Lee Baldwin. The action will be hot, clean, and just what the title promises. But the best thing about Lee's tapes is that they really are good. Nothing phony goes on, nothing dumb, just plain ol' playful sex. Ahh.

Assplay 2 follows four previous tapes and a set of stills, and precedes three more promised titles on video (Suck, Foot, and Tattoo Pierce). Each of the previous videos (Assplay, CBT, Shave, and I Was Fucked by a Machine) sells for $39.95, Assplay 2 is $59.95, The Stills sell for $39.95, and the upcoming titles can be pre-ordered at $49.95 each. Shipping and handling adds an additional $4 to each item. Order from Lee Baldwin Entertainment, P. O. Box 34491, San Diego, CA 92163.

This month's (not so new) Palm Drive tape is Sodbuster featuring Wes Decker

(of Texas and Atlanta, GA, fame). This is a solo tape, and a bit unusual for Palm Drive. It isn't the pushin'-it-at-you (aka Palm Drive) style. Instead, it's a rather gentle, quirky piece that comes off all-attitude, without sacrificing the solo sex angle at all.

Wes is a strange blend of city-slicker leatherman and country-cousin, with a fairly ample helping of gangly boy thrown in for spice. His approach seems to be entirely his own, meaning there is an general absence of directed-ness and a direction that comes from... Who knows where? Perhaps the surrounding rocks, trees, and mud. But there is indeed the rub: Mud. Mud is the point, from one point of view, but I felt it another way.

What Wes does, in effect, is simple: he has sex with and/or fucks the earth itself. Or, to give it the spin I personally felt, he makes love to the earth. It's a wierd feeling, but I couldn't get away from it, especially when he's rubbing his face in the dirt, fucking a whole in the ground, and very obviously not needing to act at all to express the pleasure very palpably.

See, strange! But I like strange, and I think you will too.

The Cool Dudes: In Art

Art Galleries are, generally speaking, local. Either you live close enough to drop in or you don't. If you don't, you go to some other gallery, or none. But, once in a while, a gallery comes along with a collection so special that the interest oversteps local boundaries. Case in point: Ganymede Gallery at 276 Marlborough Street #2G in Boston (MA 02116).

So, what do you do about it? Marlborough Street is still far away from almost everyone. Easy enough, you publish a catalogue. Better, you put out a mail order catalogue that is worth the purchase price as a slim, but very interesting art book in and of itself.

Ganymede's first catalogue shows 80 art works in full color (small, but well-reproduced) by 18 artists. The accent is on the male figure, and most of the works here are nudes or images with at least implicit sexual content. The taste and understanding suggested by this booklet are wonderful, almost promising that

This particular papercutting by Paulos, The Scourging, hangs in our editorial offices at Drummer.

Suppose eating, not sex, were the taboo of our century? Suppose it was illegal for more than two people to eat together and suppose even they had to get a license for it and eat in secret while children were fed alone in dark closets? Suppose our billboards and newspaper ads, movies, and books and art devoted themselves to pictures of food—but never to one glimpse of anybody eating? . . . Wouldn't it result in secret, general passions to try esoteric foods? And wouldn't people like to get together, law or none, and talk about the tabooed subject?

—Philip Wylie, Opus 21, 1949

Of the two books reviewed in this issue, only one, The Erotic Tongue by Lawrence Paros (left), is worthy of your attention. The Language of Sadomasochism by Murray and Murrell (right) is a crock of shit.

Ganymede will be around for a long time—censors and witch-hunters notwithstanding. The prices of the actual art works—as opposed to the catalogue, that is—range upward quickly to $24,000, but a number of handsome pieces sell for under $500, which may still be staggering for some people. On the other hand, the 24-page catalogue sells for just $9.95, postpaid, from the address above. As with all just about everything reviewed in Drummedia, you must state that you are 21 and sign the statement in order to have the catalogue mailed to you.

A note to artists: "Ganymede accepts for review works which represent the fine arts covering a broad spectrum of varied media, including: oil, sculpture, acrylic, photography, stained glass, and pen-and-ink. While the gallery's repertoire will be inclined towards the depiction of the male form, once accepted into the gallery, all works by an artist will be available within the gallery's collection."

The Cold Words: In Words

Books about words are something of a passion with me. I'll put up with a great deal of bungling and bumbling compilers and writers who have just about anything to say about words and language, but once in a while a book comes along "up with which I cannot put," to steal a joke most word books at least allude to. Case in point (to overuse a stiff transitional phrase): The Language of Sadomasochism: A Glossary and Linguistic Analysis by Thomas E. Murray and Thomas R. Murrell. (We'll call them the Toms, although we don't doubt their Aryan purity.)

The Toms, then, have managed to compile, with a myopic view that seems to take Columbus, Ohio, for the center of the SM universe, a completely useless glossary that runs on for 116 pages without giving the authors any clue as to what they were putting together. Their introductory, analytic, and subsidiary material, of course, is founded in the same inconsequential muck and built on the a stunning incapacity to grasp what one sees.

We won't even get into the fact that while they claim to have referred to two gay leather bars and a lesbian club for source material (all in Columbus), they then ignore all things gay, or misinterpret so horrendously we can only wish they had remained one iota more ignorant. (Yes, we will. It is ridiculous to have a book under this title come out with no reference at all to Drummer, DungeonMaster, Mach, The Sand- mutopia Guardian, Folsom Magazine [where the ABCs of S&M were published!], Manifest Reader, any First Hand publications, etc. It's blindness squared.)

Examples of how this book goes wrong are on every line of every page. They mistake nouns for adjectives and verbs for nouns all over the place. It would be nit-picking to mention such a thing but for the fact that this is a book on language. And, if they can't recognize the parts of speech or the parts of a sentence correctly, you can imagine what butchery they do to the actual language of SM. (No, you can't. It's worse than you think.)

Okay, okay, I'll stop. What's more, I will tell you why I broke my own rule number one of Drummedia writing which is Never waste space on a really bad review, just ignore what falls that short of the minimum. I decided to break that rule because the title of this book is so alluring, because the need for such a book is so substantial, that I worried, "Aren't people, if not warned, going to charge out and pay the $55.00 plus shipping?" And, yes, you might have. But don't, unless you have one of those ultra-complete libraries in which one of every book on the subject of SM simply has to have a place. Just for you then, here's the ordering information: Greenwood Press, 88 Post Road West, Box 5007, Westport, CT 06881. Or call, toll-free, to order with a credit card: 1-800-225-5800 . . . but, don't.

Here's a much better book on the language of sex, guys! This is a book where gay may be unfamiliar to the writer, but what he loves is the language, and it shows. So, "gay shmay," he might say, "gimme a word and I'll beat a smile or two out of it . . . but only if it can be construed as at least a little bit related to sex, sexuality, gender, or genitalia." The book (Notice, I didn't write "case in point" again) is The Erotic Tongue by Lawrence Paros. This is not a new book, but new editions are no surprise either.

"Tongue" is also not a reference book, although the Owl Edition from Henry Holt & Company markets it as such. Neither is it really much of a humor book, and that's the other category in which they market it. Still, it is fun, and you're sure to learn a thing or two as well. Okay, so it is a reference/humor book or vice versa. Anyway, The Erotic Tongue is fun reading on the bedtime, after-the-cum-shot, here-I-am-alone level, at least. That may not be everything, but it's something (which is a lot more than can be said for The Language of Sodomasochism).

The Unmentioned Extra: Catholic Art with a Human Heart

It is entirely understandable if you, being a gay man in America in the Twentieth Century, have come to the conclusion that the opposite of humane is Catholic. It would also be understandable if you were shocked to hear that one of the most important Catholic artists in the world—meaning artists whose work reflects Catholicism, not artists who happen to be raised in "The Church"—is aware of, sympathetic to, and even pro-active in his response to the plight of gay Americans and PWAs. All the same, it is true. Dan Paulos, a painter and papercutter with impeccable Catholic and artistic credentials has been "on your side" all along.

Paulos is something of a miracle. He works in black and white, mostly his own elaborated version of the silhouette, in an age that seems to be dedicated to color. He deals in originals and very small editions of serigraphs. Not prints, although he has done a few of those, but hand-pulled silk-screen prints that he makes himself on the best papers he can find. He doesn't put on pious faces when he appears on Catholic television shows, nor does he shrink from saying and demonstrating his accommodating opinions and ideas. And, still, he is successful.

If you want to see Paulos work, including some pretty spectacular Christ figures (The Pieta, particularly), and a most remarkable "AIDS Crucifix," you can do so by ordering a copy of his book produced in collaboration with Mother Theresa of Calcutta, He's Put the Whole World in Her Hands. This book is a very comprehensive overview of Paulos' career in cut paper art, a very powerful tribute to the saintly nun who stood against the Pope with her claim that God loves everyone, even the homosexuals the church forgets, and a very pleasant way to have a few sweetly erotic male images on your coffee table, even when your parents are expected.

Perhaps, for you it will be (as it is for me) a matter of first noticing and caring for the image of the bound, scourged Christ; then noticing and appreciating Paulos wonderful touch with the male image. Then, somehow, beginning to discover first this, then that until each image has its own reason to be appreciated. This book, the greeting cards, serigraphs, and other additional materials available from Paulos, and his original art as well are inspiring—Catholically or otherwise—and easily enjoyed.

To order He's Put the Whole World in Her Hands, send $20.00 (includes postage) to Dan Paulos, 302 Chama St. NE, Albuquerque, NM 87108. (No, Paulos didn't publish the book himself, it's from Roman, but who do you want to give the money to? Order from Paulos.)

(KW:BC - MONGOLS)

(K7293/MKNIGHT)

(ON-LINE WIRE WZ:K7293;ARBX:)

08-04-1236

VIENNA, Austria - The plain across the Danube River for the Hungarian settlement of Buda became the latest battlefield in the war in which Batu, grandson of Genghis Khan, redefined the word "madness."

Witnesses who managed to escape the actual fighting and massacre testified that they watched the Mongol warriors slaughter thousands of Hungarians in a military operation that a combined hatred and the horrors of war into a blend of brutality almost beyond comprehension. The ravages and cruelties suffered at the hands of the Mongols by the inhabitants of Buda and the surrounding region can only be described in the bloodiest of terms. What they saw was vintage Batu, the efficient and surgical military muscle that made the battle for the Hungarian plains one of the bloodiest in the history of man and made Batu himself perhaps the most awesome leader in the Mongol world.

In their drive towards the Adriatic Sea, the Mongols had already left in their trail a wide and bloody swath of destruction in their conquest of the territories of the Russians and Poles, sacking, burning, looting, village after village. Inhabitants were tortured, killed or carried away into a lifetime of slavery. If inhabitants resisted, the Mongols carried out a policy of "frightfulness," torturing them mercilessly in a multitude of cruel and ingenious ways before finally putting them to death. An ear was cut from each of the dead victims and bags were filled with these as trophies.

Latest reports, however, indicate that the carnage has slowed down suddenly in some regions and halted altogether in others. Mongols have been seen mysteriously headed eastward towards their homeland. Unsubstantiated sources speculate that word has arrived from the steppes of Central Asia that all Mongols have been summoned back to their capital due to the death of the Great Khan himself.

HOW TO PLACE YOUR AD IN DEAR SIR:

We accept ads, and changes to ads, only in writing. Sorry, we cannot do this over the phone. Submit ads on the form on the facing page or a copy of it. If you can't bear to cut up your issue of Drummer and can't make photocopies, send us a note and we'll mail you copies of the form.

Box Numbers: $5.00 buys you a Drummer mail box for the life of your ad. Even after your ad expires, we will continue to forward replies forever — as long as we keep getting letters. (So keep us posted if you move.)

Give us a name. We cannot forward mail to someone named "Boxholder" at a P.O. Box. The Post Office won't do it.

Phone Numbers: You can put your phone number in your ad for immediate response. WE WILL ONLY PUBLISH VERIFIED PHONE NUMBERS. Here's how to put your phone number in your ad:

Mail in your ad. (Don't forget to include the $2.00 phone verification charge.) About two weeks after you mail to ad to us, you call us at (415) 252-1195, during business hours (9:00am-5:00pm Pacific Time, Mon. -Fri.) Be at the phone number you are placing in your ad. We will call you back to verify the number. If we have not verified your number within three months, we will publish the ad with a box number instead of a phone number.

What else? Put anything you want in your ad, except: references to minors, animals, prostitution, or drugs.

Expect about a 60-day delay from the time we receive your ad to when it appears in print. Remember, it takes time for people to respond, too. So, for example, if you're looking for Christmas presents, it would be smart to send us the ad 90 or 120 days before Christmas. Also remember replies by international mail may take longer than domestic mail.

HOW TO REPLY TO A DEAR SIR AD:

How to reply to a Drummer box number: Answering a Drummer box number is easy, but the few rules we have are hard and fast, so observe them or else. 1.) Seal your letter in an envelope on which you have written the box number on the back flap in pencil. 2.) Put your return address on the envelope if you wish the letter to be returned to you should there be some problem with delivery. 3. Put proper postage on the envelope: domestic postage is 25 cents for the first ounce, 20 cents for each additional ounce. Foreign overseas postage is 45 cents per one-half ounce. 4.) Leather Fraternity members also do not pay for a box number or pay forwarding fees when they write to Dear Sir box numbers. Members may change their ads up to three times (non-members may not). A Leather Fraternity box number for your ad is included in the $120 membership fee. And, from time to time, Leather Fraternity members are offered other benefits.

MANSERVANT ACADEMY

Applications are now being accepted for a unique training program for Men. Updating the concept of a Gentleman's Gentleman, graduates of Man's Man Manservant Academy will be familiar with all of the tasks normally associated with titles such as butler, valet, houseboy and chauffeur, and will also be trained in tasks of special interest to LeatherMen, e.g. care of leather and rubber boots, clothing and toys; care of the dungeon environment including furniture, equipment and supplies; appropriate subservient behavior in a range of tasks from answering the telephone to serving dinner for guests; and all aspects of body service from French to Greek. There will be special emphasis on personal hygiene and care both for yourself and your Master, including massage techniques, erotic and therapeutic. Our objective is to make you the perfect Man's Man in every aspect from selecting the correct wine to serve with dinner to the appropriate techniques for handling a fore-skin while sucking cock. You must be between 21 and 50, intelligent and in good health. This is not planned for you to get your rocks off, but is intended for Men serious in their desire to serve Men. The training is "on the job." You will serve, and be trained by, two experienced TopMen at their country estate in Northern California. You must be willing to contract for three months full time service. At the end of 3 months, training extensions are possible by mutual agreement. Your full room and board will be provided. The tuition you pay for training and the salary you receive for services rendered cancel each other out exactly. Enrollment in a health care program is possible, if needed. To apply, send a letter including a statement of your interests and experience in being a Man's Man. Include your physical description, age, and current relationship status. Outline your economic situation, including how you would find it possible to devote three months full time to the training. Responses without the above required information will be deemed to be from incompetents and will be ignored. Those who do adequately respond to the above instructions will be sent a more detailed application form. Only one Man will be selected for training each three months. MM Manservant Academy graduates will be the best trained servants to Man in the world. MMA graduates will make themselves indispensable to their Man. If you are serious about serving Men, get your application in now. Box 8277

Anal Pleasure & Health

SECOND EDITION

Jack Morin, Ph.D.

In these days of doubt and fear it is always a pleasure to find a book that gives positive, sound, research-based information on anal sexuality while dispelling the myths. It is commonly believed that people who regularly enjoy sensual erotic anal stimulation inevitably run a greater risk of developing medical problems. The belief is that one must choose—either anal pleasure or anal health. For many, the strength of this conviction has been intensified even further by the AIDS crisis.

In Anal Pleasure & Health, the reader will discover that there is no inherent conflict between anal pleasure and anal health. On the contrary, a person who wishes to expand his/her capacity for enjoying anal stimulation is advised to take virtually the same steps as the person who desires optimum anal health.

Dr. Morin covers such forbidden topics as anal self-exploration, locating and exercising anal and pelvic muscles, stress and tension release through anal stimulation, proper douching and lubrication techniques, physiological aspects of "fisting," confronting the taboos concerning feces, homophobia and masculine/feminine roles, oral-anal stimulation (rimming) and even suggestions on finding a sympathetic physician.

Now in its second edition, Anal Pleasure & Health contains full research data, bibliography, and an entirely new section on common medical problems of the anus and rectum, which includes a comprehensive discourse on AIDS and coping with the crisis.

PHYSICAL INTERROGATION TECHNIQUES

by Richard W. Krousher

"One of the most terrifying and gruesome books ever printed!"

The book that tells you what no other book will: how to torture information out of an unwilling subject. Most people will not have the stomach to read it, but those who do will learn more about torture and torment than they dreamed possible.

In step-by-step chilling detail, Physical Interrogation Techniques tells you how to evaluate a subject to determine what kinds of torture will be most effective, and then goes into grisly detail on actual methods of torture.
The author covers humiliation, confinement and restraint, sensory deprivation/overload, intrusion into body orifices, abrasion, beating, burning, electricity, and much more, including a heavy-duty chapter on mutilation.

It is the best book ever written on torture and interrogation techniques. You may not "enjoy" this material, but you will never forget it!

S H O C K I N G !

CAUTION: the basic rule in using electrical toys is: Current running between the two contacts must not pass through the chest cavity. Simplified: NO CONTACTS ABOVE THE WAIST!

Titillator

A battery operated pulsed signal generator that is simple to operate and easily portable. Two intensity controls allow you to fine tune the sensations, and separate frequency and pulse rate controls offer the maximum range of stimulation variations.

The unit is 4 3/4" x 2 1/2" x 1 1/2" and comes with a 9 volt battery and a set of leads. The name of this unit comes from "titillation," it is NOT for use on the tits!

DEA 006 $119.95

Titillator Leads

Plug your WalkMaster, WalkMaster II, or Titillator into the accessories described on this page.

DEB 012 $34.95 Titillator Leads

All Purpose Leads

A pair of wires with banana plugs appropriate for the sockets of these accessories at one end, and alligator clips at the other end.

DEB 012 $34.95 All Purpose Leads

Titillator Attachments

RelaxAcisors, WalkMasters, Titillators, or whatever you use, these attachments will provide hours of shockingly great sensations. A new artisan is producing the following electrical attachments from clear lexan (a crystal clear, very hard plastic) and space-age conductive materials. Each piece has one or more receptor sockets for banana plugs (RelaxAcisors fit!) and will also work with alligator clips or bare wires. These electrical attachment devices can be used with the Titillator described above and also work with WalkMasters, RelaxAcisors, hand crank generators, and other similar devices.

DEB 002 $39.95
Double Electrode

Cockrings

Cockrings are available in four diameters: 1 1/4", 1 1/2", 1 3/4" and 2". Each size is available with a single electrode and conductive material running the full circle, or with two electrodes and separate areas of conductive material on each half of the circle. Please specify size(s) when ordering.

Electrowand

This is a lexan rod with conductive material at the business end. Connect any other electrode in a convenient place - a cockring, for instance - and use the ElectroWand to play with other areas: genitals, thigh, ass, feet, anywhere below the waist. DEB 009 $59.95 Electrowand

Sparkler

This is a short length of conductive rubber (approximately 6" long by 1/8" diameter). It works well in any moist opening or crevice: ass, crotch, urethra. This one really delivers a jolt! (NOT FOR NOVICES) DEB 008 $39.95 Sparkler

Electric Butt Plug

The charge of a lifetime. A lexan plug (approximately 6" x 1 3/4" diameter) with two electrodes that stimulate the anal sphincters. With a Titillator, or other power source that has an adjustable pulse rate, this is a real fucking machine. Expensive but worth it. Made to order, allow up to eight weeks for delivery. DEB 007 $149.95 Electric Butt Plug

Violet Wand

The Violet Wand, officially known as the "Master High Frequency Unit," is a device used by barbers and beauticians to stimulate the skin. It can be very effectively used for the same purpose by Tops. The glass electrodes glow purple when in use and sparks jump from the electrode to the skin surface (fantastic in a dark room). This is one electrical device that is safe for use above the waist, as the charge travels across the surface of the skin rather than through the body. (CAUTION: Keep the bulb away from the eyes!!!) We offer only the Heavy Duty Unit, which has a transformer located along the extra long cord and can be used for extended periods of time. Includes one (#1, disk shaped) electrode. Additional electrodes are available.

Stock Prod

The stock prod is one of the most effective control devices made. Excellent for conditioning your animal to behave the way you want him to. There is nothing erotic about a jolt from this device, just a quick painful zap that he will want to avoid having repeated. This model takes three "C" cells and gives him a jolt that is painful without knocking him over the way some larger units can.

TOUGH CUSTOMERS

JOY STICK I

TC 148-01

This New York State "cop" has fantasies about real truck drivers, heavy equipment operators, cops and boxers. He's into light SM, bondage and toys. He'd like photos and letters from other hot men into photography.

HOW TO BE A TOUGH CUSTOMER

BE A DRUMMERMEN! Leathermen ARE Drummer. These photos were contributed by Drummer readers—YOU should be on this page. Send us a black and white photo (color is acceptable but will not reproduce well) with your name and address printed on the back, along with a statement that you are of legal age, and your signature. If you wish, we will assign you a confidential TC Box Number—This is a FREE classified ad with your picture in it! Or, if you just want your picture in our pages and don't want any mail, just say so. We can't show penetration, and photos are not returnable.

To Answer a TC ad: put your correspondence in an envelope, seal, apply postage, and write, in pencil, the TC number on the back flap. Put this inside another envelope along with a buck for handling, and mail to: Tough Customers, PO Box 11314, SF, CA, 94101-1314.

JOY STICK II

▲ TC148-02

Stud from the Mid-West reports for duty wearing a butt-plug a cockring and a jockstrap. He needs to be wrestled down, tied up good and have his hard cock put through a slow J/O workout. But only if he earns it!

TOUGH CUSTOMER SPECIAL PUBLICATION!

Drummer readers tell us that the Tough Customers pages are among their favorite features. And we get lots of pictures, all the time, more than we could ever fit into Drummer. Quite a problem, isn't it: Too many hot men sending in private pictures of themselves, hoping to hear from other Drummer readers. Our solution was a sizzling 84-page special publication with about five hundred Tough Customers in it, some of them reprinted from past TC pages, most of them new. That was Drummer Tough Customers #1. A magazine with contact information for hundreds of men looking to connect with other men. Tough Customers #1 is available at some newstands and bookstores (unfortunately, some of our distributors felt we had pushed the limits too far, and won't distribute the book) or you can order it directly from us: Desmodus, Inc., PO Box 11314, San Francisco, CA 94101-1314. Send $6.95 per copy, plus $2.00 shipping and handling. Now, here comes Drummer Tough Customers #2. It's not too late, if you act right away, to get your picture and message into the second TC book. See the instructions at the top of this page, and get in on the action!

HOT NEW DRUMMER/ZEUS S/M VIDEO

U S S M / TWO

Drummer and Zeus have done it again! The newest video in the U.S.S.M. series has lots of hot men and hot, authentic, SM action. This time Fred and Henry, the stars of U.S.S.M. ONE, are joined by two more hot bottoms who, with Henry, form a "Menage-a-Flog", tied together to offer their bare chests and backs to the attention of Fred's whips.

And what beautiful chests they are! Steve Landess is a young blond novice who receives his first flogging for this video. The two players he's tied to provide psychological, as well as physical support. The third bottom in this scene lends an international flavor to U.S.S.M. TWO. He's Clive Platman, who only two days prior to the taping of U.S.S.M. TWO was selected to be Mr. Drummer 1990-1991.

In the second segment, titled "Pin Pals," Steve is stripped and tied into a bondage chair and Clive joins in with Fledermaus in applying dozens of clothespins to his body and then manipulating them for maximum reaction.

Segment 3, "Electerotic," finds Clive spread-eagled on a St. Andrew's Cross as Fledermaus turns Mr. Drummer into a Drum and works Clive's tight pecs and spread thighs with his infamous blacksticks. Then they move on to cock and ball bondage, weights and electro shock to the Aussie's genitals and ass.

Three hot scenes, three hot muscular bottoms who know how to take it and love every minute of it. Real SM action for those discriminating viewers who demand the best. 70 minutes.
